The million dollar steak house

Our first restaurant in Northern California didn't look much like a steak house when we first saw it. The magnificent edifice had formerly been a fancy Italian restaurant. We junked the marble statues and Florentine wallpaper and added scenes from Stuart Anderson's Black Angus Ranches in Washington. Now you dine on choice steaks, prime rib and lobster in a casual, smart western atmosphere. Steak dinners $3.95—any cut. Lunches $1.75. Piano bar Tues. thru Sat.

Alphabetical Listing Of Leading Restaurants

AL WILLIAMS' PAPAGAYO ROOM
Rockaway Beach
Pacifica
359-6737

This is another Nick Gust operation, located in the lower level of the Moonraker Restaurant, under the management of the personable Al Williams, the restaurateur who first made the name Papagayo legendary at the Fairmont Hotel on San Francisco's Nob Hill. The original Papagayo Room was the gathering place for celebrities, movie stars and politicians throughout the 1940's and 1950's, with Al Williams often as colorful and fiery as some of the spicy Mexican foods he specialized in. Has he kept up the same traditions in Pacifica. Repeated dinners at the Papagayo Room would indicate he has, if anything, embellished the traditions and made them more exciting. He continues to do his share of the cooking (he claims to know 240 recipes by heart; others claim he knows closer to 500) and the celebrities are still perpetually dropping in. All your favorite Mexican dishes and more. Open Wednesday through Sunday from 4 p.m. to midnight. On weekends, you'd better make reservations because the place is always crammed to the rafters.

ATHERTON CLUB
3391 El Camino Real
Atherton
365-7515

Shapely cocktail waitresses clad in scanty Gay 90 costumes add a fetching appeal to this popular night spot on the Peninsula, which features a Happy Hour daily from 4 to 6 p.m., when drinks are on sale at well-reduced rates. Robbie Robinson is the chief bartender, and occasionally he puts aside his apron to do a number or two on the rinky-tink piano. As for dining, the Atherton features both luncheons and dinners, and it is top cuisine all the way. Manager Carl Spann has gone to great trouble to see that nothing but the best emerges from his kitchen. Courtesy has always been the keynote with Spann, and he will see to it personally that you are seated at a table that is appropriate to you. The dining room service is of the outstanding kind. We always find ourselves, however, returning to the bar area to feast our optics on those girls as they come sliding down the firepole in those eye-popping costumes . . .

A. SABELLA'S
Fisherman's Wharf
San Francisco
771-6775

Since 1920, when Antone Sabella opened a small seafood business on the Wharf, this restaurant has fed thousands of people from all over the world. The business has remained in the original family, and today Lucien Sabella carries on the traditions founded four generations previous. Part of Sabella's success is knowing good recipes. Among those the restaurant is known world-wide for: New Oysters Rockefeller Alla Scabella, Calamari Saute Piccata (delicate baby squid sauteed in wine and lemon); The Fisherman's Delight (salmon, halibut, sea bass, swordfish); Filet of Sole Grenoblois, etc. etc. There are even two dishes Lucien Sabella has named after his children: Scallop Teresa and Filet of Sole Miguel. Another aspect to Lucien's phenomenal success is his banquet busines—he offers some of the finest facilities anywhere in the Bay Area. In fact, his entire second floor is devoted to banquets and special parties, with seating going as high as 400. These facilities are in such constant demand it would be wise to make reservations well in advance. The Capri Room offers piano-bar entertainment Tuesday through Saturday from 9 p.m., and the Capuccino and Espresso coffee machines provide just the right finishing touch to those superb seafood meals.

ALIOTO'S
8 Fisherman's Wharf
San Francisco
673-0184

It has often been called "The Showplace of San Francisco," and little wonder—the restaurant's Mediterranean Room offers one of the most sweeping views of San Francisco, including the Golden Gate and Bay Bridges. Seafoods, of course, are the specialties of the house (i.e. Crab Cioppino, Crab Legs Mornay, Bouillabaisse) but there are many selections of steaks, chops and chicken. While this is indeed a superb place to dine we often find ourselves returning just for the exquisite view. Alioto's offers luncheons and dinners daily, as well as a Sunday Champagne Breakfast, which is quite popular with both tourists and San Franciscans. The quality of this restaurant dates back to 1925, so you know you're in for a traditional treat.

SAM P. APOSTLE, who has served as general manager of the Marriott Inn, Belmont, since April 6, has been with the parent company, Cle' Corp., out of Houston, since October, 1969, and was previously the Inn's Food and Beverage Manager.

Marriott Inn Features 200 Units Gourmet Dining And Banquet Facilities

It is new to the Bay Area landscape, and it stands but a short distance from ABC's Marine World, that aquatic tribute to water skiing elephants and ego-oriented seals. It is called the Marriott Inn and it features 200 units — all excellent rooms with all the modern conveniences and luxuries. But what is more important to gourmet diners is its Saxon's Platter, an atmospheric dining room that offers the very finest in food, service, etc. The menu is a treat in itself, its cover adorned by a rendering of an original woodcut by William Service, which depicts a scene from the world-famous Bayeux Tapestry woven by Queen Matilda, wife of William the Conqueror who defeated the Saxons in 1066 Also of interest to the historian will be the platters on the wall which are repicas of 1512 platters engraved with stag deers and Old English writing. General manager of this superb inn is Sam P. Apostle, a graduate of the University of Denver Hotel School who has sinced worked at the Mark-Hopkins Hotel, the Holiday Inn in South San Francisco, the Porterhouse Motel in Phoenix, Arizona and many other places. Under his management, the Saxon's Platter offers a diversified menu, from New York Pepper Corn Steak (served in a rich mushroom sauce), to Prime Rib to Fondue Bourguignonne for two. There is also a coffee shop that seats 125, the Piper's Pantry, and a cocktail lounge, P's and Q's (named after the British phrase "watch your pints and quarts, which has been bowlderized down through the centuries). The Bob Lucas Trio performs for dancing Tuesday through Saturdays from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Vera Higdon is at the pianobar Monday through Friday from 5 to 9 p.m. Director of Food and Beverages at the Marriott Inn is the personable Peter Probst, a hard-working Swiss-born gentleman who has worked in the past for Harrah's Reno and the Cabana Hotel in Palo Alto.

BALKAN VILLAGE
4898 El Camino Real
Los Altos
968-7251

One of America's most successful Greek restaurant - tavernas. Louis Gundunas, "The Happy Greek," co-owner who appeared in New York and west coast stage productions of "Zorba," is star of the nightly floorshow. He performs authentic Greek warrior and sailor dances, including his famous "Ouzo Table Dance" in which he lifts a table using only his teeth. Sonia Caffejian performs her senuous and voluptuous Armenian dances. Bouzouki orchestra entertains for folk and contemporary dancing. Greek and Middle Eastern cuisine features Lamb Kapama, Mousaka, Pastitso, Baked Chicken Riganati, as well as steaks and seafood. Open for dinner daily except Monday. Happy Hour, with double martinis 75 cents, weekdays, 5 to 7. Free Greek dance lessons every Wednesday.

BERTOLUCCI'S
421 Cypress
South San Francisco
588-1625

It was 1928 when this restaurant first opened its doors to the public, and since then it has thrived as a favorite dining spot — not only for Bay Areans but for show biz celebrities as well. On an average evening, you could be dining at Bertolucci's and be only feet away from the likes of John Wayne, Phil Harris or Sonny Tufts. Even figures from the world of sports have been known to frequent the restaurant. Under the management of Larry Bertolucci and his lovely sister, Lola Bogdan, and with Mamma Bertolucci helping out, the long-running business is famed for its Cannelloni in White Sauce or Italian Sauce; Chicken Saute Toscana; Chicken Supreme a la Kiev; Coq au Vin Bourguignonne and Veal Cutlet Chanteclaire. "Men only" is the policy in the Mediterranean Room during luncheon hours, and there are banquet facilities for as many as 250 persons. Bertolucci's is open seven days a week, with luncheons weekdays from 11:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Dinners are from 5 to 11 p.m. Monday through Sunday.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN HOTEL
44 East Fourth Avenue
San Mateo
344-2511

While most old-style hotels grow hoary with age, the Ben Franklin has maintained an aura of newness—not only in its refurnished decor but in the friendliness of its personnel, who are always ready and eager to help. The hotel is one of the oldest San Mateo landmarks, and under the ownership of Erwin Best is still well-known for its superb cuisine dining. The Greenwillow Room, managed by head chef Tom Delano (his wife, Doris, serves as hostess) has undergone some changes this year and we must compliment Tom on his Roast Crossribs of Beef (au jus), Breaded Veal Cutlet, Southern Fried Chicken (with a gravy you won't soon forget), Grilled Baby Beef Liver (with onions or bacon) and Brochette of Beef Tenderloin. Tom also specializes in sandwiches as well as his own desserts: The Cherry Cobbler, Dutch Apple Pie and Bavarian Cream Pie. Just off the lobby, across from the Greenwillow, is the famed Club Seville—a relaxing setting in a Baroque Spanish decor. Erwin Best also provides banquet facilities for parties either large or small.

BOSTON WHALER
1855 So. Delaware
San Mateo
341-6301

Filet of English Sole, served with Crab and Shrimp, with creamy mushroom sauce, and Monterey Abalone are among the sea food entrees served a la carte or on the complete dinners at the new Boston Whaler, located on South Delaware just north of Nineteenth Avenue. Complete dinners are served with soup, salad, assorted relishes, dessert, coffee or tea. An array of sandwiches are available, plus soups, salads of several kinds. There's even a Diet Plate for the weight conscious which includes one quarter pound ground sirloin served with cottage cheese and your choice of fruit salad or tossed salad. Open seven days a week, the Boston Whaler also serves steaks and chicken.

The Licata Family—A Restaurant Tradition

Although this restaurant is currently not open, with the staff on a vacation until Tuesday, July 7, mark this one down as a must-go on your July dining out calendar. Vince's has often been dubbed "The Fisherman's Wharf of the Peninsula," for it has served Bay Areans since 1945 with the very finest in food, service and atmosphere. Vince and Nina Licata offer a unique mixture of Italian and seafoods, and are close to most of the customers they draw from surrounding Peninsula offices. They are also visited by diners from throughout the Bay Area who have heard of Vince's reputation and are drawn to it like the mice of Hamelin. Assisting Vince and Nina are their sons, Louis and Anthony, and daughters Angelina and Rosalinda, who are expected to carry on the Licata tradition in years to come. Vince's two large dining rooms seat up to 250 persons and are open daily from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m., Friday and Saturday from 11 a.m. to midnight, and Sundays from noon to 10 p.m. Right next door is Vince's Open Air Seafood Depot and Delicatessen, which is now open for business as usual except Sunday.

BARDELLI'S
243 O'Farrell Street
San Francisco
982-0243

Whether you are met and seated by manager Stuart Adams, maitre d' Louis Meyer, or hostess Inez Torres you are in for the finest hospitality—the finest you will find in any San Francisco restaurant. The traditions of Old San Francisco have been kept alive at this famed dining spot (located just off Powell Street) for among the many famed dishes are: Paillard a la Marchand de Vin, Zucchini Tortino and Pancake Jerusalem. Open from 11:30 a.m. to 11 p.m. Monday through Friday, Saturday from 4 p.m. Closed Sundays. Banquets up to 45 can be arranged with private bar included. This place is as San Francisco as a clanging cable car.

BOCCE BALL
638 Broadway
San Francisco
982-8597

Located in the heart of North Beach's topless district, this unique club has fought off the temptation to go the way of the flesh and has retained its policy of presenting classical and semi-classical operatic entertainment — the only such San Francisco night club to do so. The artists may be professionals or novices; one time the janitor put aside his broom and pail and stood up to sing. But rest assured that owners Mario Pieroni and Silvio Canepa (brother-in-law to Mario) have chosen the very finest for your listening ear. The line-up changes occasionally, but never the quality. Doors open 8:45 p.m. seven nights a week, with singers going on at 9:15 p.m.

BRENTWOOD LODGE
101 Brentwood Drive
South San Francisco
583-6263

Victor Scafani is your host at this exquisite dining gourmet room, complete with fireplace cocktail lounge. House specialties include Chicken Saute Sec, Chicken a la Cacciatore, Chicken Livers Saute, Breast of Capon Epicurean aux Champignon, Royal Boneless Squab with Wild Rice; Veal Scaloppine a la Marsala, Sweetbreads Saute Neapolitan and Veal a la Parmigiana with Tortellini. Facilities are available for banquets and receptions — business or social. Up to 300 persons. The room is adjacent to the beautiful Terrace Garden. Jimmy Pederson is at the piano and organ Wednesday through Sunday in the cocktail lounge. Dining room open daily until 11:30 p.m.

BLACK STAG
600 Ralston Avenue
Belmont
591-0388

Featuring authentic North Italian cuisine (Cucina Toscana), the Black Stag is an ideal dining place for sun lovers, with a garden patio dining pavilion, as well as an elegant dining room furnished in black leather with a sunken circular bar. Luncheon is served Mondays through Fridays from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.; dinners Mondays through Saturdays, 5 p.m. to 11 p.m.; Sundays, 4 p.m. to 10 p.m. Cocktails served seven days a week from 11:30 a.m. Excellent accommodations for banquets, wedding receptions and meetings. General Manager Mike Allio attends to the hosting duties, assisted by Arnie Ramirez.

BROTHERS
95 Third Avenue
San Mateo
343-2311

The Brothers are famed for an assortment of dining specialities at this combination restaurant-delicatessen, which has table, booth and counter service. Luncheon and dinner items are prepared to go, as well as cold cuts and bakery goods. You can order their famed "meal in a sandwich" combinations by the number cthat corresponds to it on the menu. The Peninsula is a hot sliced corned beef or pastrami, while the Dinty Moore is a toasted three-decker made with hot corned beef, sliced tomatoes, lettuce and dressing. Sandwiches Extraordinaire include El Camino which is an open-faced affair consisting of sliced turkey, Swiss cheese, sliced tomatoes and hard-boiled egg, and the Onion Roll Special—hot corned beef and hot pastrami with a slice of Swiss cheese. All in all, quite a place, with the Brothers also catering to home or office parties. There is also a Brothers located in the Sacramento Town and Country Shopping Center.

BLUE PEACOCK
25 South El Camino Real
Millbrae
697-6162

Located in Kings Bowl, the Blue Peacock features the excellent cuisine of chef Dick Hoffman. A wide choice of entrees served every day of the week from 11:30 a.m. The Steve Romano Combo plays popular dance music for dinner-dancing Fridays and Saturdays starting at 9:30 p.m. Cocktails served in the lounge. Bowling, dining and dancing is a great way to unwind after a heavy business schedule.

BRUNO'S
2389 Mission Street
San Francisco
824-2258

A chuckle always goes well with a good meal, and at Bruno's you will be pleasantly delighted by the many charcoal caricatures which adorn the walls — caricatures of San Francisco VIP's and other notables from various walks of life. Chef Don Jones and others prepare Italian specialties that can be eaten there or taken out. We especially recommend any of the veal dishes, as these have always been the high points of Bruno's. The restaurant is open seven days a week from 11 a.m. to 3 a.m. Parking is available, as well as banquet facilities.

THE BUNDOX
Pier 7, Embarcadero
San Francisco
421-6967

In full operation, but undergoing gradual change, is this unique waterfront restaurant operated by Guy and Al Falchi, famed for their ownership of the High Iron Restaurant in Pacifica until its fiery demise. Changes to come include a deck extension and an increase in seating capacity that will afford a much more intimate view of the Bay, the boat traffic and the Bar Pilot boats which berth at Pier 7. The Bundox is becoming well known for the variety and excellence of its cuisine, which is under the direction of Swiss-trained chef Roberto Cuyugun. Dinner is surprisingly varied with Escarogot and Caesar salads. Entrees include: Scampi, served sauteed in wine, parsley, butter and lemon; Abalone Piccata Dorato; Frog Legs Provencale, Fiete of Sole Belle Meuniere; Sirloin of Veal with asparagus, Crab Legs and Hollandaise. Dinners from $2.95. One of the unusual house specialties is the assortment of coffees that Guy Falchi prepares, including the San Pedro, served flambe.

BRUNO'S
95 Third Avenue
San Mateo
342-2311

The mark of the true professional is stamped not only on his bearing but on his product. In the case of the restaurateur, he must demonstrate a dedication to his work that often keeps him confined to the kitchen for hours on end, or in his place of business into the odd hours of the night. Bruno Fava, owner of Bruno's of San Mateo, has shown that dedication, and has the food to prove it. "I'd be lost if I didn't have this restaurant," he has said, and even his hired help reflects a rare devotion. Says one employee: "Bruno treats his help with a great deal of respect — more than most restaurant owners." Bruno has had his share of hard luck — his Crescent City business was flooded by water and his Atherton eatery burned completely to the ground a year later — but with his present location he has built a solid reputation. Most of that reputation rests with his food — especially the Cannelloni and the rich cheese sauce that comes with it. The Cannelloni itself is a mixture of veal, beef and chicken, enwrapped in a flavorful potato pancake; his Veal Scalloppini ranks with the best. And the rest of the reputation? It comes from his personable character. Meeting Bruno Fava is as rich an experience asseeating his food.

WELL-ROUNDED Kim Clark is one of the featured dancers in "The Paris Revue," currently being staged nightly at the Off Broadway in North Beach.

BLACK FOREST INN
376 First Street
Los Altos
948-5031

Nestled in a scenic area of Los Altos, this family-style restaurant specializes in both German and Continental cuisine that is mouth-wateringly unforgettable. We often have trouble translating from the native language, but nothing is lost when it comes to the superb flavor of these dishes. Emanuel Frenay is the man who has given fruitation to the international eating idea, and we feel he deserves a pat on his beer stein. Incidentally, there is a Bier Garden at back, where imported and domestic beer is on tap. The Black Forest Inn is open daily from 11:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. except Monday and Tuesday.

Now Rocky Aoki's Benihana Restaurants Coast To Coast

Benihana, in Japanese, is a poetic word for "red flower," but to Americans it has taken on entirely new meanings. The first Benihana on Tokyo opened five years ago in New York, and was an immediate success. Rocky Aoki is the owner of the growing chain of coast-to-coast Benihana steak houses. A year ago the second in the U.S. chain opened in San Francisco and it has been a raging success among Bay Areans ever since.

In keeping with the Benihana tradition, the San Francisco steakhouse, at 740 Taylor Street near Bush, specializes in what is known as teppanyaki-style cooking; all meals are prepared on a steel grill imbedded in each tabletop, right before the eyes of guests. A young thoroughly trained Japanese chef greets diners with a low bow and begins his fabulous display of culinary art. Once diners have selected jumbo shrimp, or the choicest cuts of steak or chicken, the personal chef at each table slices, cooks and serves the seafood and meat, along with delectable mushrooms, zucchini, beansprouts and tantalizing sauces. Lovely, kimono-clad Oriental girls serve cocktails, clear Japanese beer and warm sake, as well as soup, rice tea and desserts.

Also contributing to the luxurious, yet relaxed atmosphere of the Benihana steakhouse is the truly authentic decor. The interior was originally designed in Tokyo to resemble a Japanese country inn. Massive, hand-hewn timbers and Japanese artifacts from a 200-year-old Oriental inn were shipped to San Francisco to enhance the aesthetic pleasantry of the restaurant. Mr. Aoki, who believes that showmanship is essential to the restaurant business, attributes his well-deserved, nationwide success to his close alliance with the traditional Japanese philosophy on dining: the ear should be soothed, the eye beguiled, the mind delighted, the nose tantalized, and the palate ravished — while the appetite is slowly appeased.

BENIHANA GUESTS: — World Famed restaurateur, Rocky Aoki, owner of the Benihana chain of coast to coast Japanese restaurants greets and hosts a group of beauty winners at his San Francisco restaurant.

The Japanese Steak Ceremony.

At Benihana we turn a steak into an experience you'll never forget. And we do it before your very eyes.

We put into this experience centuries of tradition, the skill of a Japanese chef born and trained in Japan, and the finest steak you can get.

So come. Experience a steak with us.

CHARLES'
859 O'Farrell
San Francisco
474-2039

A certain aura of mystery and charisma has always surrounded this unique restaurant, for it has seldom advertised and had relied mainly on word of mouth and reputation. Obviously, it deals with only the very finest in cuisine, prepared only the way such delicate dishes should be prepared. Service is exquisite, geared to cater to the individual need and whim, no matter how insignificant the request may seem. Live dance music is offered on Friday and Saturday nights. We highly suggest you make reservations before dropping in, or you may be disappointed. Prepare yourself for a unique experience in dining — there may never be another place like Charles' as long as you live.

Once it was known as The Greek Village, but they have put away the Moussaka Katsarolas and lamb chops to make way for that fast-moving chap, Armond "Chip" Turiello, well known figure on the local restaurant scene. Until seven years ago, "Chip" was offering some good times with his Chip's Serenade in San Bruno, and he is returning to the business with new fire and enthusiasm, determined more than ever to make his fresh place of business one of the most exciting in the area. Very soon Chip will be opening the dining room in his establishment where special steak dinners will be featured for only $3 a plate. In the meantime, the place is open six nights a week for cocktails and dancing to live entertainment. No matter how you cut it, there's gooing to be a good time for all at Chip's Serenade.

392-4443

Famous for starting the topless movement in 1964, The Condor Nightclub is still going strong as a perennial tourist attraction in North Beach. Lola Raquel (44-23-36) is the lady ambassadress who dances sensuously on the piano (she won front page attention for wearing a "frontless dress" from San Francisco to Hollywood for the premiere of a film); singer Tina Hardy; songs by Diamond Jim, and music by Soul n' Salt n' Peter. Continuous shows from 7 p.m. No cover charge.

CHI CHI
444 Broadway
San Francisco
392-6213

San Francisco's only eight-act exotic revue, featuring the most beautiful nude dancers in the United States. L-O-N-G runway extends from the stage down the center of the plush showroom, making every seat in the house "ringside." Miss Keiko, former prima ballerina from Tokyo, Japan, is gracious owner-hostess. Current hit show, which features the most explicit love dances on Broadway, is a girl-watcher's paradise. Head liners include Judy Roe, Tami Lynn, Joni Love, and Tori Lynn. Sexy blonde vocalist Evana sings torrid love ballads in four languages. Comic Max Knopf breaks up the capacity audiences with a barrage of hilarious gags.

COSTA BRAVA
Bayside Motor Inn
2011 Bayshore Boulevard
San Francisco
467-3157

Penthouse dining and dancing with a spectacular panoramic view of San Francisco and the Bay. Specialties include Pepper Steak, Brochettes of Beef, Lobster and Sirloin Combination. Open seven days for dinner, lunches Monday through Saturday. Dancing to the Rising Sons Tuesdays through Saturdays. Happy Hour 4-7 p.m. with "Foot-Long" Martini $2.95, ladies' drinks, 50 cents. CABANA HYATT HOUSE
BON VIVANT
4290 El Camino Real
Palo Alto
493-0800

The luxurious multi-million dolar hostelry has an all-new look with a decor emphasizing warmth and traditional interior design. It has recently opened the Bon Vivant, one of Northern California's most beautiful new supperclubs. It features cocktail hour entertainment beginning at 5 p.m., dinner from 6 p.m. Top-name shows begin nightly at 9:30 with continuous shows until 1:30 Mondays through Saturdays. Buffet luncheon daily from 11:30, and their famous Sunday Champagne Brunch. Dinner specialties include Beef Wellington Bouquetiere, Chateaubriand Bouquetiere and Rack of Lamb Bouquetiere. For an unusual cocktail, try Caesar's Seizure, an exotic blend of rum and champagne, topped with fresh black grapes, served aflame in a Roman goblet. Bruce L. Locken is general manager and Dennis G. Sannes is his Executive Assistant.

CAROL DODA'S
430 Broadway
San Francisco
433-2810

Pneumatic Carol Doda, the Napa girl who made North Beach history in 1964 when she dropped the straps of her topless bathing suit, now has her own club where she appears as a singer-dancer. Carol, whose body juts and curves like a tortuous mountain road, also stars in the sex spoof "Guru You Too," a fantasy in which the statuesque blonde cavorts with men (and women) as she reposes nude on her bed. During sequences in the film, Carol breaks through the split magic screen to appear live and sing rock ballads such as "Light My Fire."

CAPRICE
2000 Paradise Drive
Tiburon
435-3400

A fascinating view of the Golden Gate and Bay is afforded from Kirby Atterbury's restaurant overlooking Raccoon Strait. Because this is such a popular site for those seeking intimate dining, reservations are suggested well in advance. beral period style. On the lower level there is a bar which has a fireplace for quiet get-togethers.

COTE D'AZUR
3301 El Camino Real
Atherton
365-7373

This is a popular "in" spot for celebrities and visitors from all over the world. In a single afternoon and evening, you're apt to find yourself seated only tables away from the likes of Cary Grant, Doris Day and Marie Wilson. Superb luncheon and dinner cuisine is served nightly except Sunday. And the Cote D'Azur is one of the few really elegant restaurants on the Peninsula to serve luncheons on Saturdays until 4 p.m. (luncheons are, of course, served weekdays). Many of the gourmet treats that await your palate are Fresh Scampi Saute Bordelaise, Breast of Capon a la Kiev and Tartare Steak Escofier. Souffle Grand Marnier is a superb way to end the meal . . . a finer dessert you will not find anywhere. Chef and co-owner Rene Canabou personally sees to it that your meal is the very best, and co-owner Dan Biagi is also on hand to greet patrons. Maitre 'd Roland Bohlander makes each and every patron feel like a king or queen from the very moment they enter the posh dining room. The cocktail lounge is an attractive place to relax, with entertainment nightly (except Sunday) from 8 p.m. Reservations are advised.

CARRIAGE TRADE CLUB
1535 Meridian
Carriage Square
San Jose
266-2630

This is a remarkable dinner club program offering 28 free dinners at leading Peninsula restaurants, as well as three special passes to the Century Theaters to see the very best in current motion pictures. The cost is only $10 per membership. There are no menu restrictions, or limitations set on what you can order. All that is required is that your dining companion order one meal at the regular price. This gives you two dinners for the price of only one. The membership is valid Sunday through Thursday (excluding days closed and holidays). This membership would make a wonderful gift certificate. Among the superb 28 restaurants are the Surf House of San Mateo; and Chuck's Steak House of San Mateo.

CHICKEN UNLIMITED
901 South B Street

THE CLAREMONT HOTEL
Ashby at Claremont
Berkeley
843-3000

Murray Lehr, one of the three popular Lehr brothers of the San Francisco-Bay Area restaurant-hotel world, has been operating this fabulous resort hotel since January 1, 1955, with all the expertise only a Lehr can bring to the job. Nestled in the picturesque, green hills of Berkeley, the Claremont features the famed buffet in the Garden Room, one of the most massive eating areeas in the Bay Area. We suggest a night cap in the Terrace Lounge, where you can savor a breathtaking view of the Bay Area.

DAY'S RESTAURANT
244 Ellis (at Market)
San Francisco
421-2894

The sandwich . . . perhaps a common enough American luncheon staple, but at Day's it becomes something uncommon. For it is at this popular hofbrau that you have your choice of meats, turkey, roast beef, pastrami, corned beef or ham on a sour dough Frenchroll. There is a large cup of au jus gravy for dipping the roll and there is a tossed green salad thrown in—all for just $1.40. And with a large chilled stein of draft beer for 25 cents, it makes for a solid lunch or dinner. Day's offers two hot specials daily. They vary from day to day, but you can always depend on Salisbury Steak on Thursdays. These specials include an appropriate rice, potato or spaghetti dish with rolls and butter. Generally speaking, the hot dishes are $1.25. Day's also boasts of having the largest bar in the West. The prices are undoubtedly the lowest, with singles at 50 cents and doubles at 85 cents.

Day or night, it's Days.

DOMINO CLUB
25 Trinity Place
San Francisco
392-5579

In addition to being a popular rendezvous spot for young people in search of companionship, this award-winning restaurant, under the aegis of Larry Geraldi, is famed for its hundreds of nude paintings which adorn the walls. Complimentary hors d'ouevres are served nightly wenches who will turn you on as wenches who will turn you onas much as the paintings.

DARDANY'S
1000 Doyle Street
Menlo Park
325-2767

Those men who own their own catering service and are therefore known as The Party Givers Extraordinaire, G. Peter Podany and E. John Darrimon, own and operate this offbeat dinner house, which has undergone a change of menu. House specialties now consist of Escargot aux Champignons (mushroom caps stuffed with snails and baked in butter and herbs); Frog Legs Dardany (in delicate bordelaise sauce); Rex Sole Meuniere and Sweet Breads Madiera; and assorted beef dishes, from Planked London Broil to Char-Broiled Chopped Sirloin Steak (served on a plank with duchess potatoes and herbed tomato). There are also three lamb dishes to choose from, as well as seafood and chicken specialties. Dardany's is famed for its unique luncheons, served weekdays from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Dinners are available from 6 to 9 p.m. Closed Sunday and Monday.

DORO'S
714 Montgomery
397-6822

Acclaimed by San Franciscans, as well as by visitors from all over the world, Doros is truly a gourmet restaurant. For nine consecutive years Holiday Magazine has named Doros for Dining Distinction in San Francisco, an accolade given to very few restaurants. Host-owner Don Dianda keeps a sharp eye on every phase of the operation to be certain that his high standards are adhered to.

Millbrae
697-7700

The former Thunderbolt Hotel was acquired by the Executive House Inc. in January, 1970, and under the experienced direction of General Manager Al Salah is fast becoming one of the Bay Area's leading hotels. The Millbrae location of Executive House is the first link in the fast-growing international Chicago-based chain. Many changes are in progress, including remodeling of sleeping rooms, meeting rooms and the lobby. The popular 101 Ranch Steak House offers top-grade beef and steaks. Dinner-dancing is featured Tuesday through Saturday evenings featuring Bobby Garay and the Fred Charles Trio. One of the largest ballrooms on the Peninsula, with a capacity of 1500 persons for parties and banquets, plus six other private meeting rooms. The Coffee Shop is open 24 hours a day for the convenience of guests and commuters. Adjacent to the San Francisco International Airport, the hotel complex offers limousine service to and from the airport 24 hours a day.

EXPOSITION FISH GROTTO
No. 1 Fisherman's Wharf
San Francisco
673-9565

The reputations of some restaurants change with the frequency of the tides, but not the reputation of this world-famous Fisherman's Wharf restaurant, owned by the irrepressible Sil Oliva. Exposition Shell Fish Special (abalone, prawns, crab legs and scallops), the Chef's Combination Plate and Treasure Island Plate (a combination of shell fish with select Eastern Oysters) are just a few of the superb delicacies served at Exposition Fish Grotto. Certainly one of the most distinguished aspects about this restaurant with many distinguished aspects is executive chef Art Davis, who has won many prizes for his crab specialties. Art, an affable cook who is always willing to take time out from the kitchen to say hello to an appreciative diner, last year swept the Crab Cooking Championships and sports three trophies for his mouth-watering recipes. Art is also something of a writer, as many of his articles appear in culinary magazines. Even Exposition salads have a unique reputation among people who jae traipsed from all over the world to San Francisco. Open daily from 11 a.m.

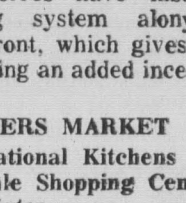
FINOCCHIO'S
506 Broadway
San Francisco
362-9913

To call the entertainers who perform here the world's greatest female impersonators is almost an understatement. The art has been perfected to unsurpassed heights by such names as Lucian, the "Sophie Tucker," Laverne Cummings, Carroll Wallace, Jackie Philips, Elton Paris, Russell Reed, Reggie Dahl, Esturado and Miguel, Rene De Carlo and Bobby D'Castro. Also on the current bill are The Eve-Ettes. Shows nightly from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m.



FRANK TORRES' BEACH HOTEL
Coast Highway One
Montara
728-3335

As venerable as the Andes Mountains, Frank and Fannye Torres have been serving the public longer than most Coast residents can remember. Much of that public comes from faraway to try the Peruvian dishes that Torres is so well known for. Certainly Papas Rellenas is the all-time favorite delicacy, with Arroyo con Pollo (Chicken South American style) taking a close second. Other recommended dishes include Silver Smelt, salmon, abalone and ceviche (pickeled fish), which must be ordered at least three hours in advance. Torres is open Wednesday through Sunday. You will also enjoy the picturesque view of the Pacific, for the Torres have installed a lighting system alony their beachfront, which gives nocturnal dining an added incentive.

FARMERS MARKET
International Kitchens
Hillsdale Shopping Center
San Mateo.

Farmers Market offers the busy shopper an interlude in dining with a selection of International cuisine, in an informal family-style setting. Herbert Darker, general manager and Tenant manager of the huge International Kitchen complex, lays claim to having "The world's largest menu" under one roof. The delicate specialties of Ling Wong's Oriental dishes are everyone's favorite, as are the zesty Mexican recipes of Mama Castillo. Authentic fish n' chips in contrast to the all-American favorites of hamburgers and hot dogs. Included among the International Kitchens are the Bar-B-Q Pit, Castillo's Mexican Kitchen, Coffee Fish n' Chips, Ling Wong's Chinese, San Remo's Wiener House, the Hofbrau. Every Sunday is Dollar Dinner Day at Farmers Market, where each of the nine restaurants feature a particular selection from their menu to be sold Sundays only fo just $1.

FORK 'N CORK
2608 El Camino Real
San Mateo
341-4213

"Tops 'n Tails" is the treat to eat at the Fork 'n Cork. This is a generous helping of Top Sirloin Steak and tender Lobster Tail. The Fork 'N Cork is perhaps best known to Peninsula diners as having one of the most varied menus found anywhere. From "Field and Farm" come Coq au Vin (Half Chicken, simmered in red wine, mushrooms and fine herbs); Chicken Cacciatore; Veal Scallopini a la Marsala (veal simmered in Marsala Wine Sauce); and Breast of Capon. From "Neptune's Domain" come Alaska King Crab Saute and Louisiana Jumbo Prawns. And from "The Ranch" come the Tom Jones Pepper Steak; Brochette of Beef and, for the smaller appetite of the little ladies, the Ladies' New York City. As you can see, there's always plenty to choose from at the Cork 'n Fork. Imported and domestic wines provide a superb accent to these meals, and there is an excellent selection to choose from. Alma is the hostess in the main dining room, and Dave Dodd is the talented ivory pounder in the cocktail lounge. The Fork 'n Cork serves luncheon Monday through Saturday from 11:30 a.m.; dinner from 4 p.m. daily.

FOSTER'S
El Camino Real and 29th Ave.
Hillsdale-San Mateo
341-1485

Chunky chicken in a rich gravy and topped with a flaky, pastry crust is a standard part of Foster's Chicken Pie Special, which comes complete with rolls and honey, wild blackberry sundae and coffee — all for only $1.75. This is just one of countless specials Foster's offers at this Chicken House rendezvous spot, which is open seven days a week from 7 a.m. Breakfast, lunch and dinner are served daily, with special prices for groups. A bucket of chicken for five costs only $3.95, while the complete chicken dinner ("all you can eat") is now being offered each and every day for $2.85. Senior citizens, make note of the fact that there is a special Foster's menu just for you. All you have to do is show your Medicare card and, Monday through Friday from 11:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. you can enjoy your choice of food for only $1.25.

FLEUR DE FRANCE
2148 Geary Boulevard
San Francisco

THRILLING HEIGHTS — Two tramway cars carry 80 visitors each over Mt. San Jacinto on one of the most spectacular aerial trips in southern California. This picture, taken by helicopter just as the cars are about to pass one another, is shot at the half-way point of the trip. The car leaves from the Valley Station at 2820 feet and climbs the pinnacles and crags of Chino Canyon to the 8,500-foot mountain station of the Palm Springs Aerial Tramway.

THE FRANCISCAN
Fisherman's Wharf
(Next to Pier 43½)
San Francisco
362-7733

Although its reputation is founded solidly on its seafood dishes, it is not surprising to find patrons ordering New York steaks and other meats at this popular Wharf restaurant. The reason for this is that general manager George Skaff, and owner George Burger, have co-ordinated their efforts to see that only the very best meats and fish are permitted to pass to and from their kitchen. Thus The Franciscan has a double reputation, and the slowest night of the restaurateur's week you will still need a reservation here Because of the upper level facilities, and because it is picturesquely located next to Pier 43½ at the Wharf, the Franciscan offers fine views of the Bay and skyline of San Francisco. Each time a vessel passes through the Golden Gate, the management provides details about the ship — name, cargo, destination — through its direct hookup with the Marine Exchange. Bouillabaise a la Marseillaise, Broiled Swordfish Steak, Crab Cioppino and Crab Meat Newburg with Rice Pilaf are among the specialties of the house.

FUJI SUKIYAKI
428 East Third Street
San Mateo
343-9705

Raw fish, bamboo shoots, chop suey — you name it and chances are you'll find it on the superb menu of this Japanese restaurant. We especially go for the Tempura (fried prawns), Unagi Donburi (eel on a layer of rice) and Oyako Donburi (chicken, vegetable and egg on a layer of rice). This place is so thorough you can even order a hamburger sandwich. Closed Tuesday and Wednesday.

FRANCESCO'S
529 Broadway at Columbus
San Francisco
391-2100

This raucous North Beach gathering spot is famed for its Las Vegas-type revue with "sensual scenes." They ay this is really a hot show, one that will take the curl out of your eyebrow and weaken the starch in your shirt collar. This is certainly one way to increase your laundry costs and have a ball at the same time.

GOLDEN PAVILION
4320 El Camino Real
Los Altos
941-5656

Golden Pavilion Dinner of-the-month is a Must. Once a month, Colonel George Chow (U.S. Army, retired) opens the doors of his Golden Pavilion restaurants in Los Altos and San Francisco for a very special occasion; his famed "Dinner of the Month," consisting of sumptuous Chinese epicurean delights served in a unique fashion. Each dinner is a gala eight-course presentation, served amidst an authentic decor that has made the Golden Pavilions bastions for atmospheric dining. A course-by-course commentary describes ingredients, the history and method of cooking. This is delivered personally by the affable Chow, via a public address system. All the schools of cooking — Shanghai, Peking, Yantchow, Scqchuen, Cantonese and Cantonese-Shanghai—are employed during this exquisite, exotic eating session. Reservations are required a few days in advance and seating is done by tables of ten in the time-honored Chinese banquet style. Price is $6.75 per person, tax and tip included. You will also enjoy the "Get-Acquainted Cocktail Hour" which begins at 7 p.m. Dinner is served promptly at 8 p.m. Wine is extra. Phone the restaurant for the date of the next Dinner-of-the-month.

GOLD RUSH TAVERN
350 No. Bayshore
San Mateo
342-6788

With easy access to northbound from Bayshore Freeway at Fore Avenue, the Gold Rush Tavern, under the direction of Tom Garrett, provides popular entertainment Friday and Saturday evenings spotlighting Lee and Leona Brown, otherwise known as "A Bee n' a Honey." Popular songs and special arrangement of old favorites on the Cord-O-Vox and drums from 9 p.m. keeps the tavern filled with happy patrons. Tom has been serving the favorite cocktails of his regulars for over ten years.

GREEK TAVERNA
256 Columbus Avenue
San Francisco
362-7260

This is the place that has, in the course of the past two years, become famous for its Navel Maneuvers. Some of the shapeliest belly dancers twist and undulate to the music on the Trio Orfeo. But the Greek Taverna is also a remarkable restaurant, serving only authentic Greek dishes. One of our favorites is the Moussaka Katsarolas (baked egg plant, ground beef and cheese sauce). Ever popular is the Combination Plate.

GILBEY'S
237 Powell Street
San Francisco
421-2909

"Miss Happiness" herself, Margie Brandon, has recently settled behind a new pianobar at this famed Powell street cocktail lounge, where the elite meet for fun and relaxation. The vivacious pianist, who has more songs in her repertoire than hats and shoes in her closet, seldom takes a break from the ivory once she's warmed up to the situation. She performs Wednesday through Sunday, and those are swingin' nights at Gilbey's, indeed. Right now the lounge is under construction, and you might have to go around a barrier or two, but it's worth it once you've arrived at Miss Brandon's playing area and can partake in her kind of entertainment. We cannot recommend this girl too highly.

GOLD SPIKE
527 Columbus Avenue
San Francisco
986-9747

Since 1920, this famed restaurant has been serving Italian style family dinners to thousands who have gone away with broad smiles on their faces. These same patrons have returned time and again, and word of mouth has made the Gold Spike the place for fine home cooking. Cocktails are available; closed on Wednesdays.

HI-FI ROOM SOUTH
12 East Third Avenue
San Mateo
343-9666

Joe Borges and Ben Muniz, enterprising owners of the Hi-Fi Room South, are always offering some kind of dance contest, which has great appeal to the younger set. Plenty of rock noise at this in-spot, famed for its inexpensive prices and ample portions of whatever is currently being offered.

HOLIDAY INN
Bayshore at Airport Blvd.
South San Francisco
589-7200

Luxuriously decorated with deep, blue pile carpeting, contrasted with rich brown panneling and white tables is the decor that makes Fred and Jerry Rapp's Crown Room dining pavilion at the Holiday Inn one of the most sought-out on the Peninsula. Highlighting the spacious room is a jeweled crown of gold. Cast iron replicas of knights in black armor stand as sentries at the iron gates that lead into the dining room. The cocktail lounge is unique in itself with a sunken bar and comfortably placed tables in a romantic setting that adds intrique while sipping cocktails. Guitar entertainment is provided by Stu Stoneback and lovely Anne Reed at alternate times, seven days. Excellent banquet facilities are available for parties or meetings. Luncheon served daily from 12 p.m. to 2 p.m.; dinners daily 5 p.m. to 10 p.m.; Sundays til 11 p.m.

HYATT HOUSE BURLINGAME
1333 Bayshore Highway
Burlingame
342-7741

It is the true gourmet who will best appreciate Hugo's Room, the spectacular semi-circular restaurant located in the heart of this massive hotel complex. Executive chef Heinz Gmelin has prepared a sweeping menu, ranging from such unique hors d'ouevres as Marinated North Sea Herring and Blue Point Oysters to spectacular flambe dinner specialties. Highly recommended among these many delicacies: Tournadoes of Beef, Vienna Rostbraten, Indonesian Spring Lamb (marinated with Indonesian spices, Chinese pea pods and water chestnuts), and the Pepper Steak, which is prepared in fine champagne, and garnished with potatoes and green vegetables. General Manager Bill Griffin oversees this smooth-running operation with dining room captain John Van Gerrevink assisting. George Cerruti and his drummer provide dance music Tuesday through Saturday from early evening on, which means there is always continuous background music for your dining, conversational or dancing pleasure. Harpist Maureen Searles is on hand on Monday evenings. For an after-dinner beverage, drop into the adjoining Hugo's Bistro, where Max Gail is at the piano 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. and Hank Faulkner is on guitar 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

HILTON INN
S.F. International Airport
South San Francisco
589-0770

Pianist Maurice Anger, who is at the piano bar in the Mark Twain Lounge Tuesdays through Saturdays, just celeborated his tenth anniversary at this posh establishment — which gives you an idea of the loyalty shown by employees to the Hilton concept. A resort-type atmosphere prevails over this luxurious hotel, from its Olympic-size swimming pool to its French Corner Restaurant. Continental cuisine is served here that is unforgettable, with some American specialties thrown in for good measure. There is a delicious buffet luncheon for the afternoon crowd. By the way, violinist Johnny Vidor joins with Anger on Friday and Saturday evenings.

HOUSE OF TROY
1240 El Camino Real
San Carlos
592-0433

This is a steak house, straight and simple, but unforgettable under the management of the personable Sal Campagna. You could call this a he-man restaurant, for the New Yorks are 16 oz., with sirloins man-sized and the thick juicy filets two-fisted. On Friday and Saturday, Sal offers mouth-watering Prime Rib. There are assorted fish delicacies also on the weekday menu. But it's the steaks that will be bringing you back, time and again, to the House of Troy. You might call that our Achilles Heel as far as the waistline goes.

HILLSDALE INN
E. Hillsdale Ave. and Bayshore
San Mateo
341-3461

Fred Williams and Roy Nelson, congenial host-owners of the Hillsdale Inn, have provided their guests with dinner-dancing Fridays and Saturdays from 9:30 p.m. Special party activities are programmed throughout the summer for public fun. The Motor Hotel also features a 24-hour Steak Pit and Coffee Shop for night owls and late travelers. The many meeting and banquet rooms have made this a popular spot for wedding receptions and special functions.

ONE OF THE MOST UNUSUAL Chinese dining adventures in America is the Golden Pavilion's unique "Dinner-of-the-Month." Rare and unusual Chinese gourmet dishes not readily found in American Chinese restaurants are included in the eight-course feast. Abalone Julienne, Duck Filets with Pineapple and Chicken, are typical items. George Chow, president of the restaurants and originator of the unique epicurean adventure, delivers a witty and informative commentary as each dish is served. Seating is at friendly tables of ten, Chinese banquet-style. Reservations required three days in advance, so phone the Los Altos restaurant for the next date.

HARVEST TABLE BUFFET
799 East El Camino Real
Sunnyvale
245-8930

This is the place to bring the entire family for one of those unforgettable meals, where there's more than enough to eat and countless items to choose from to fill that plate. Chances are you'll want to take the family back time and again to savor its many treats. Cocktails are available in the adjoining Odyssey Lounge. Highly recommended for an inexpensive, delicious meal.

INTERNATIONAL INN RESTAURANT
Bayshore Freeway and Airport Boulevard
South San Francisco
583-8020

The dining room here is an elegant, atmospheric area in which to partake in cuisine dining. Each dinner comes complete with assorted relishes, chilled crisp mixed green salad, your choice of dressing, a baked Idaho potato, vegetable, rolls and butter and beverage. The Broiled Center Cut Pork Chops, Apple Compote, is one of our favorites, and we always go for the Tournedos Choron with Artichoke bottoms. Other items: Suerbraten with potato pancakes; Young Roast Tom Turkey with special corn bread dressing, and Tender Strips of Beef a la International Inn (sauteed in mushrooms, sauterne wine and finished with sour cream en Casserole with rice). Call Manager Doug Young to make your reservations for banquets and dinners. There is also a coffee shop, open 24 hours a day, and a relaxing cocktail lounge.

INDONESIA SATAY HOUSE
504 Castro at 18th Street
San Francisco
431-8075

Reservations are strongly advised at this unique Indonesian and Malayan restaurant. All of the superb dishes prepared under the supervision of Mrs. Marie Pohan are served daily from 4 p.m. to 10 p.m. except Fiday, when the business is dark. This is a superb dining experience — one you will not soon forget.

IRIFUNE JAPANESE RESTAURANT
24 East 17th Avenue
San Mateo
341-2700

Authentic Japanese cuisine is the main feature here, intermingled with the graciousness of Oriental service under the direction of Toshio Kyohara. From the Oriental lanterns to the private tatami dining rooms, Toshio has created a culinary temple fit for a king. The tatami rooms must be reserved in advance, and meals are prepared at your table by charming, kimono-wearing waitresses. Luncheons are available at the Irifune Tuesday through Sunday, in addition to the superb dinners.

IRON HORSE
19 Maiden Lane
San Francisco
362-1349

Sam Marconi and Leo Giorgetti are your genial hosts at this famed "swinging" Financial District spot on the fashinable San Francisco lane, and they reflect the city's proud heritage in the art of good dining. Hot and cold hors d'oeuvres are served nightly. Banquet rooms are available for special entertaining, and you should talk with Sam or Leo to arrange sales meetings, office parties, wedding receptions, birthdays and other special occasions. Open Monday through Saturday from 11 a.m. for both lunch and dinner.

INN OF SIXTH HAPPINESS
3708 South El Camino Real
San Mateo
574 9910

Cuisine of Shanghai is the specialty here, and in some cases you must order a good day in advance: Mandarin Duck, Crispy Duck, Tung an Chicken, Shark's Fin Soup, Stuffed Winter Melon Soup, Huo Guo (a special chafing dish) and the Steamed Stuffed Rice Pudding. There is also a special VIP dinner for $4.50 a person which teatured cubed steak in a unique lobster sauce. Open for lunches and dinners weekdays from 11:30 a.m. to 10 p.m. Open Saturday and Sunday from 3:10 p.m. Closed Mondays.

J & G RESTAURANT
501 Fourth Avenue
San Mateo
343-9602

"Come as your are" is the motto of Guido Bianchina and Joe Selmi at this family-style Italian restaurant, which serves a superb Minnestroni soup to prelude your main course. Chicken Cacciatori, Veal Scallopini, Chicken Saute Sec and a flavorful Stew are among the specialities. On Saturday and Sunday evenings the boys offer a roast beef dinner, and Monday nights they have Polenta and Chicken dinners. This is the place where "the best of friends meet."

L'AUBERGE
2826 El Camino Real
Redwood City
365-3735

Open seven days for dinner, Monday through Fridays for lunches. Partners George Bollag, master chef and Louis Frutschi, maitre d'hotel, blend to present one of Northern California's most distinguished French restaurants. Inspired haute cuisine is served in a relaxed French country inn atmosphere. Specialities range from Steak Diane (flamed at tableside) to Escalope de Veauvolaille Portugaise. Gourmet desserts include Strawberry and Grand Marnier Souffis. Unparalleled wine list includes rare Bordeaux and Burgundies. A corps of tuxedoed male waiters provides the continental service to make this a truly memorable dining adventure. Private dining room.

HAIG MARDIKIAN — The son of George Mardikian is the heir apparent of Mardikian Enterprises, which includes the world famous Omar Khayyam's restaurant. Haig, a graduate from Trinity College in Hartfort, Connecticut, is a familiar figure at Omar Khayyam's, as he has worked at the restaurant as his father's protege since he was 15 years old — meeting and greeting the guests in the inimitable Mardikian style.

THE LANAI
41st Avenue and El Camino Real
San Mateo
345-1242

Like the Villa Chartier, located just next door, this fabulous restaurant is under the ownership of Emerson Murfee. The Lanai lends a touch of tropical splendor and South Sea island serenity—from the moment you push open the hard-carved front door until you seat yourself at your table, surrounded by exotic orchid plants, a colorful waterfall, soft lights and wafting Hawaiian music. There is an authentic luau pit, where suckling pigs are prepared on festive occasions, as well as exotic tropical rum drinks and food of the Orient, Indies and Hawaii. Chuck Carroll is general manager. Open Monday through Saturday from 5 p.m, Sundays from 4 p.m.

LAMP POST STEAK HOUSE
2750 S. El Camino Real
San Mateo
341-5441

Elegant dining at moderate prices—this is the rule-of-thumb at this offbeat steak house, where all meats are prepared over the restaurant's gigantic, circular broiler, which is a "one of a kind" on the local dining scene. In fact, customers are invited to stand near the broiler and order their meat to the exact degree. Both beer and wine are served to compliment the dinners.

LONGLEY'S
Battery and Clay Streets
(Alcoa Building Plaza)
San Francisco
391-7778

There are three different places to serve you at this spot, which is a Financial District rendevous among those who really care about fine dining. The Cafeteria is open Monday through Friday weekdays until 4:30, providing quick, convenient service for those in a rush.

The Plaza Room, on the other hand, is designed for those who want to take their time and enjoy a fine hof brau-style dinner. The Cocktail Lounge is also a favorite gathering spot. There is plenty of parking, and an escalator will take you up to the plaza. At Longley's, there's a little of everything.

LEW LEHR'S
3345 Steiner Street
San Francisco
931-0575

Located in the heart of the Marina, this steak house has become renowned thanks to the attention to detail paid by dedicated owners Lew and Edith Lehr. The extra-choice steaks are always cut to your exact order and dinners come complete with green salad, stuffed baked potato, relish dish and beverage. Open nightly from 5 p.m. Closed Sunday and Monday. Banquet room available for parties up to 35. On Sundays and Mondays the restaurant is available on a rental basis to parties up to 125 persons.

LE TRIANON
242 O'Farrellpservations. ....
San Francisco
982-9353

Back in 1963, James Coulot and Paul Dufour, owners of Le Trianon, wanted to serve a dish commemorating the Festival of France. Finding the European variety of wild boar available in California, they decided on this unusual item. As a result, Le Marcassin Grand Veneur has become a regular treat on their menu and is just one aspect of this offtrail French restaurant, which has been rated by Holiday magazine as one of the best anywhere in the United States. Other house specialties include Escargots and Souffle au Kirsch. Both owners, natives of France, have had diversified backgrounds in French cuisine, and Chef Dufour takes great pride in the fact he uses no short cuts or substitutes in creating such things as truffled goose liver, snails, mussels, glazed chestnuts and other gourmet items that have to be imported from France. Le Trianon is open Monday through Saturday from 4:30 to 11:30 p.m., with a complete dinner served until 8:30 p.m. for the benefit of theatergoers. Better make reservatins. . . .

LORD FLETCHER INN
3421 El Camino Real
Atherton
369-5501

Delightful English cuisine is served in an equally delightful English setting. Upon entering the Lord Fletcher Inn you are greeted by a large painting of Sir Winston Churchill. Hanging alonside is a fine rendering of Dwight D. Eisenhower. Rich, dark-stained walls with heavy beamed ceiling, contrasted by thick pile red carpeting. A huge rock fireplace in the cocktail lounge sets the scene for a romatic interlude in dining. Various shields and coat-of-arms line the back bar. The menu of authentic English cuisine suggests such menu tempters as Olde Fashion English Chicken and Large Fluffy Home Made Dumplings in The Pot, Canterbury Style Rack of Lamb, and Roast Prime Rib of Beef (Sir Michael). London's famous Watneys red barrel light ale served in mugs. Outstanding pressings drawn from their own wine kegs. Open 7 days a week, serving luncheon Mondays through Fridays; dinners Mondays through Sundays. The Atherton Lord Fletcher is a twin to the one in Palm Springs.

Joe and Lou Ercoli, dynamic co-owners of the well-established South City restaurant, feature Italian cuisine and choice cuts from the charcoal broiler list. Each meal is preceded by an antipasto plate, followed by soup, salad and paste. Among the specialties of the house are Veal Scalloppini Toscana, Chicken Florentina Dore, and Veal Cutlet Valdostanan. Lunches are served from 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., and there are always a number of special plates. Dinner service from 5 p.m. to 10 p.m. The Leaning Tower comes complete with banquet facilities — one room catering to small parties up to 15 persons, and a larger room that handles as many as 60. Joe specializes in supervising the kitchen on the day shift, while brother, Lou, is the night supervisor — taking care of the bar and greeting the evening clientel.

MARCONI'S
122 Battery Street
San Francisco
392-7268

For nearly 30 years, Marconi's has been a Financial District institution and a meeting place for secretaries, executives, stock brokers and other leading people and citizens of San Francisco. Its staid exterior of gray masonry is reflected in the wood-paneled interior and the deep booths of heavy black naugahyde. The staff has only infrequent changes and the result is that there are many customers greeted by name as they approach the long, comfortable bar for their first enjoyment of the restaurant. Bar prices are among the lowest in the district, and food quality among the highest. The specialties include fish, pastes, charcoal-broiled steaks at both lunch and dinner, and countless beef and veal dishes. Prices start at $3.50 for dinner which includes creme de cocoa or de menthe dessert liqueur.

In this beautiful new hotel, located just a short ways from Marineyorld, there are three different rooms for your dining or relaxation (not to mention 200 units of rooms). The Piper's Pantry is a coffeeshop that seats up to 125 persons; the P's & Q's is a cocktail lounge, and the Saxon's Platter is a gourmet dining room that will not disappoint you should you possess discriminating tastes. The Saxon's Platter specializes in an Old English atmosphere, and features such delicacies as Planque Chateaubriand (for two), with bouquet garni, potato rissole and bordelaise sauce, and carved right at your table. There is also Beef Tenderloin en Brochette; Prime Rib AU Jus, Queen or King cut; and Fondue Bourguignonne for two. An unusual appetizer we have not encountered before is the Shrub: consisting of chilled orange juice, topped with lime sherbert. All in all, this is a superb dining experience. The Bob Lucas Trio, by the way, performs in the cocktail lounge for dancing Tuesday through Saturday. Vera Higdon is at the pianobar Monday through Friday.

THE MOONRAKER
Highway One
Rockaway Beach, Pacifica
359-0303

Nick Gust, the enterprising restaurateur who somehow still finds time to serve as Mayor of Pacifica, owns and operates this unique "nautical" restaurant overlooking the waters of the Pacific. It has been handsomely laid out to resemble various aspects of ocean-going craft. There are steering wheels and compass holders on the tables, pilings, old block and tackles and other "briny" artifacts. The menu is made up of a la carte items: Filet of Sole Marguery; Whole Pacific Coast Rex Sole; Crevettes de Mer, Bombay style (shrimp in East Indian style); Veal Scallopini Marsala; Veal Saltimbucco. Chef's Specialties include Chicken Cacciatore Milanaise; Shishkebab, Frog Legs a La Provencale and Roast Rack of Lamb Kapama. For dessert, try the Baba au Rhum, Chantilly or the Cherries Jubilee. Don Kelly sits behind the organ Wednesday through Sunday in the evenings.

NEW SOUTHERN
975 El Camino Real
South San Francisco
583-0441

Famous on the Peninsula for over 40 years as serving "the finest southern-style cooking north of the Mason-Dixon Line." Host-owned by Nick Sbarra, Reno and Julio Donati, the New Southern also features Continental favorites. The popular house special is Chicken and Dumplings. A painting of an old paddle wheel riverboat steaming down river hangs behind the bar in the lounge as a reminder of olden days along the Mississippi River. Helen Hart entertains nightly at the organ as lounge guests enjoy cocktails at fireside. Luncheon is served Mondays through Fridays 11:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.; dinners, Mondays through Sundays, 4 p.m. to 11 p.m. Not open Tuesdays. Private banquet rooms are available for dinner parties or meetings.

1136 Broadway
Burlingame
342-0692

This is a restaurant designed with the intimate touch in mind. It is atmospheric, with the decor conveying the Swiss flavor of the food. Another feature that makes it seem homey is that it is operated by Wilfried and Marion Blarer,,mild-mannered Europeans who go out of their way to give you specialized service. Certainly the house favorites here are the fondue dishes. You can have either cheese fondue, or the peanut oil batter into which you can dip your sirloin. Among the entrees: Geschnetzeltes Kalbfleish (veal in sauce); Sauerbraten Spatzi und Rotkraut (marinated beef, homemade noodles and red cabbage), New York Steak and Lobster Tail (drawn butter), Truite aux Amandes (sauteed trout with almonds), Veal Cordon Bleu and Canard a L'Orange (roasted duck in a flavorful orange sauce). Adorning the walls are tranquil still life scenes as well as color Swiss crests, each one representing a different county in that nation.

NICK'S
Highway One
Rockaway Beach, Pacifica
359-3900

Located just next door to The Moonraker, this long-established restaurant and beach motel is also owned and operated by the indefatigable Nick Gust, Mayor of Pacifica. This is a favorite spot for Sunday breakfast, as there is a superb view of the Pacific through the huge bay windows. As always, you can dance on Friday and Saturday evenings to the music of the Del Carlo Combo, featuring vocalist Mary Ann Hay. We recommend any of the omelets, or any of the special luncheons Nick Gust offers. The new maitre d' is Frank Cabrera.

OFF BROADWAY
1024 Kearn Street
San Francisco
982-3866

This North Beach night spot is still famed, after six years, for its topless waitresses, and continues to present one of the most colorful shows in the area. Typical of the pomp and pageantry at Off Broadway is "The Paris Revue," which alternates with the musical renditions of Gary Graham and the Poor Boys, topless go-go dancers and other musical offerings spiced with plenty of bare skin. "Paris Revue" leads off with the music of "Hey, Big Spender." Next comes an Apache dance from "Irma La Douce." The half-man, half-woman tango is an artful number which deceives but is understood. The General de Gaulle number features some clever costumes that reveal all, and there is The Minute Waltz number that fills out one costume change period prefacing the wild "Can Can" finale Appearing in the show are the beautiful Kim Clark, March Wind, Jennifer Child and Adrian Carter. Topless dancers begin performing at 6:15 p.m., and live music is featured from 9:15 p.m. on Friday and Saturday Breakfast Shows are offered at 2:15 a.m. For the businessman, there are topless luncheons Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

ORESTE'S
118 Jones Street
San Francisco
474-5811

As a child in the Tuscany town of Lucca, Italy, little Joe Piccinini would dream about the day he would operate his own restaurant. In 1957, that dream came true when Joe opened this classy Italian restaurant on the fringes of the Tenderloin District of San Francisco. The food is prepared Tuscana style under Joe's supervision. A good way to start off the meal is with the Scampi, or baby lobster, in a special sauce of butter, lemon, white wine, parsley and a touch on garlic. The entrees consist of beef and veal dishes, and there is an extensive wine menu with more than 200 varieties to choose from. We recommend you top off your meal with The Joe Special: a flaming glass of rum, triple sec, brandy and two floating coffee beans. Banquet facilities include a variety of rooms serving from 28 to 125 persons. This restaurant is certainly for the most discriminating connoissuer. Open for lunch and dinner Monday through Friday, open for dinners only on the weekends.

OYSTER SHELL
2620 El Camino Real
Redwood City
366-3837

This recently-opened restaurant specializes in shellfish and seafood, and has already established a reputation as one of the finest of its kind on the Peninsula. Offbeat luncheons are served Tuesday through Friday, with dinners available from 5 to 11 p.m. Closed Sunday and Monday. Ray Alves is to be commended for drawing up a superb menu, and we suggest you pause to hear Bob Howard at the pianobar Tuesday through Saturday.

OMAR KHAYYAM'S
196 O'Farrell Street
San Francisco
781-1010

All his life, Armenian-born George Mardikian has had to struggle for what is his. Today, he is one of San Francisco's leading restaurteurs and has been instrumental in giving Armenia food a new meaning to Americans. Omar Kyayyam's has served as a mecca for over a quarter of a century for gourmets and food connoisseurs.

PIZZA PLUS
1906 El Camino Real
Redwood City
369-5246

"We serve up the greatest pizzas on the Peninsula." So they claim at Pizza Plus, and we have yet to come across anyone who disputed their word. Anything and everything goes atop these sauce-laden pizzas, which literally melt in your mouth. In addition, there are several Italian dinners to select from, all served family style. All food can be prepared to go. Phone ahead, and your order will be waiting for you, piping hot.

PLACE PIGALLE
3721 Buchanan near Bay
San Francisco
931-5644

Looking for authentic French cuisine? Then this is your restaurant. All the foods (and each is as authentic as advertised) is served in a unique Parisian atmosphere (well, they don't have can-can girls, but everything else is on hand). All major credit cards are accepted. Cocktails are served from :30 p.m., with dining until 11:30 p.m., until 10:30 p.m. on Sundays. Closed Mondays. Banquet facilities are available for private parties.

Bay Meadows Race Track 'Works Both Day And Night'

Appropriately nestled between the thundering surf of the Pacific Ocean on the west and the subtle lapping of the San Francisco Bay on the east is Bay Meadows Race track, sprawling over some 179 acres in the southeast section of San Mateo.

The historic equine emporium, which features all types of racing, ranks among the finest on the West Coast and gives the Peninsula major league status in the Sport of Kings.

With the legalizing of night racing in California, the race track, commonly referred to as the Meadows, is now in action almost all of the year around.

It was at Bay Meadows that night racing made its debut in California, with the quarter horses charging down the lightening fast straightaway under a barrage of 600 electric lamps.

Presided over by Robert S. Gunderson, a man of infinite knowledge of the turf world, Bay Meadows plays host to quarter horses, harness horses and the thoroughbreds.

Following the departure of the quarterhorse breed, the race track takes a brief sojourn and prepares itself for a visit by the itinerant County Fair circuit, which chugs into town July 28 for a two-week run.

The Northern California County Fair meet, which has evolved from the proverbial "leaky roof circuit" into one of the major county fair circuits in the nation, features all three types of racing.

Following its closure on August 9, Bay Meadows shuts its door for refurbishing for another four weeks.

Then on September 4 the popular thoroughbreds invade the oval for an extended stay which lasts through December 21.

Bay Meadows harbors a colorful thoroughbred history, which includes some of the greatest horses ever to flee over the turf, including the now legendary Native Diver who started his illustrious career at Bay Meadows and later came back to account for many of his stakes win there.

The first 27 days are held under the banner of the Tanforan Racing Association, with the final 51 days flying the flag of the California Jockey Club.

The equine addicts are given only a brief respite as three days later, giving the plungers barely enough time to get the Christmas presents unwrapped, the trotters and pacers return to Northern California under the auspices of the California Horse Racing Association.

The sulkies hold forth until February 22 and then the cycle starts all over again with the quarter horses preparing to move into the famed Meadows' backstretch.

THE PIZZA HUT
160 El Camino Real
Millbrae
692-2595

"At the Pizza Hut, we serve the Family Circle," says General Manager Eli Custino. Every variety of pizza imaginable is served in three different sizes — from the favored combination to plain cheese. The Pizza Supreme ("The big one") in the large size sells for $3.45. Take out orders are available as well as eating in. Draft beer (light or dark to compliment your pizza selection. The Pizza Hut also features a variety of sandwiches and salads. A special coupon with one free pizza is in effect June 19 through June 28, 1970, with a limit of one coupon per family. Take advantage of this special and "eat to your heart's content."

PARDINI'S GROTTO
333 Broadway
Millbrae
697-6554

Gene Pardini and Paul Tufo, two enterprising young men with an ambition to succeed, are doing just that at their Pardini's Grotto, the "Fisherman's Wharf of Millbrae." A superb selection of fresh fish and seafood specialties as well as steaks and a variety of Italian dishes. Outdoor dining in the arcade has proved popular during warm weather days. Open Mondays through Saturdays from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Wednesdays; from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays. A large selection of fresh seafood and shell fish is also available at the take-out counter. Banquet facilities for intimate dinner parties.

TWO CAN GO OUT MORE OFTEN — The Carriage Trade Dinner Club Membership Cards are well received by dine-out Peninsulans, especially with the Villa Chartier, Surf House and Chuck's Steak House listed among the outstanding local restaurants. Pictured dining at the Villa Chartier are two members taking advantage of the Carriage Trade Dinner package.

The Carriage Trade Dinner Club— Two People Can Dine Out More Often

The Carriage Trade Dinner Club of San Jose and Denver. Not entirely first, but most certainly new. A prestige emp bossed membership card opens the door to a new world of dining enjoyment. At last an economical means of trying that restaurant that you have always wanted to go to, but. . . .

Think of it! 28 free dinners at the area's most popular restaurants. The Villa Chartier, Chuck's Steak House of Hawaii and the Surf House just to mention a few. As a member you are entitled to anything on the restaurant's regular dinner menu, no restrictions of any kind. You and your guest need not order the same thing. After dinner when you present your membership card, one of the dinners is FREE.

The Carriage Trade Dinner Club membership is a valuable one. It is intended for the discriminating dining public. The outstanding restaurants on this program will welcome you to try their facilities, fine food and drink.

As an additional bonus, The Century Theaters are offering a 20 per cent discount to a Carriage Trade Dinner Club member and one guest. Some of the award winning shows that you may expect to see are "Paint Your Wagon, Woodstock and Patton."

Yes, this truly outstanding offer can be yours for only $10 per season. (Please refer to the center fold of this issue). This has to be one of the hottest programs in the restaurant scene today — where "two persons can dine out more often."

PLAYBOY CLUB
736 Montgomery Street
San Francisco
434-2550

There's no place for having a good time as at this fun mecca, just one part of Hugh Hefner's ever-growing Playboy empire. In addition to the scantily-clad Bunnies (always a welcome sight in our tiring eyes) which are continually hopping about the premises, the Playroom will be offering, as of next Monday, the every-famous Four Freshmen — men of enormous talent and humor. They will be in for a one-week engagement. For 22 years this group has been one of the most popular singing groups in the nation. The Four Freshmen have been established as the leading vocal group of modern music and their longevity and respect is a tribute to their greatness. In the group are Bob Flanigan, Bill Comstock, Ross Barbour, Ken Albers. Like the Mills Brothers, they are an American institution.

PHIL LEHR'S
PAY-BY-THE-OUNCE
STEAKERY
232 Eddy Street
San Francisco
673-6800

The new Wellington Room has been acclaimed by people from all over the world as one of the most elegant and magnificent dining rooms in the country. It is a favorite dining place for celebrities of the entertainment world. You can enter through the Carriage Entrance after parking your car in the adjacent Taylor and Ellis lot. The attendant takes your car, and as your enter you are viewed on a closed circuit TV screen by your host. You descend the Grand Circular Staircase with its jeweled curtain and enter the Wellington Room for a superb steak dinner. Steaks are cut to order; the weight of the steak determines the cost of the complete dinner. Located on Taylor and Ellis Street close to ten downtown theaters, Phil Lehr's is open fro 5 p.m. 'til midnight, daily; Sundays, 4 p.m. to 11 p.m. Reservations are suggested.

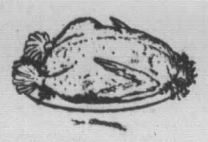
POT OF FONDUE
RESTAURANT
1540 California Street
between Polk and Larkin
San Francisco
771-6626

If you are the kind who enjoys dipping meat balls, ravioli and sourdough bread into a creamy pot of cheese fondue, then this is the restaurant for you. Diners have a wide variety of cheese fondue selections, such as shrimp, apple, sirloin, frankfurter and ham. The famed Beef Bourguignonne Fondue, which permits you to cook your raw sirloin in peanut oil at the table, and the luscious Chocolate Fondue with fruit dips are also on the menu. Wine and beer are available. The atmosphere is country kitchen and under the grape arbor. Prices vary from $1.75 per person for plain cheese fondue to $4.95 for Beef Bourguignonne Fondue. That smiling, friendly owner is Sheridan Pricert.

BALI DANCING — Indonesia's Island of Bali is an all encompassing theater, but there are no theaters as such there unless one counts a few hotel lobbies where performances are given. Dancers such as this Bali beauty perform on temple steps, under banyan trees or in village squares.

PANCHO'S
1918 El Camino Real
Redwood City
368-4004

"One taste is worth 10,000 words," is the credo of Ambrosio Moldanado, the manager of this South-of-the-Border dining casa. With his wife Tola (who makes all her tortillas by hand) he runs Pancho's as a superb Mexican restaurant shoud be run — with extra attention to the subtlety of taste. Mexican music is played during the luncheon and dinner hours to enhance the realism.



PLUMED HORSE
14555 Big Basin Way
Saratoga
867-4711

Reminiscient of pioneer days is Frances Anderson's California Room, a charming place to enjoy some really superb delicacies. Rocky Mountain Trout (stuffed with King Crab), Beef Burgundy, Chicken Saute Vienna and Roast Leg of Lamb are among the treats in store. And if you have a sweet tooth, it's difficult to avoid Frances' unusual desserts: Chocolate Rum Pie, Black Forest Cake and Mocha Cream. Luncheons are served Wednesday through Saturday from 11:45 a.m. to 2 p.m. and there is a fashion show every Wednesday and Thursday. Closed Monday.

Call him "The Baron of Pizzas" or "The Apostle of Anchovies." Either title fits Enrico Romano, owner of this superb Italian restaurant-pizza house combined. The dinners are family style and slanted to fill your stomach, not overfill it. And the pizzas . . . well, they range in size from the ten-inch "baby" to the 14-inch "extra large" and come topped with the works. Italian sausage, salami, mushrooms, cheese, beef and onions, pepperoni, linguica, olives and anchovies—to list but a few of the ingredients. Romano is a native of the Coastside and is widely known in the restaurant world as a racing car enthusiast and sportsman. He is a dedicated man and spends most of his day in the kitchen, preparing the rich sauces which cover his veal specialties.

RUSSO'S
271 El Camino Real
San Bruno
588-7088

Vince Russo, genial host-owner of this restaurant, is famous for his steaks and banquets. Four beautiful rooms are available, as well as the main dining room, which will accommodate 10 to 200 guests. Vince has earned a reputation for being "the bride's maid's bride's maid" with his assistance in arranging receptions and parties. Open daily, with lunches from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. and dinners from 4:30 to 11 p.m

SCHROEDER'S
240 Front Street
San Francisco
421-4778

This German restaurant remains a favorite, having introduced many dining institutions to San Francisco back in 1893. The Gentlemen's Grill prevails during the luncheon hours, 11 a.m. until 1:30 p.m., with the business gentry as part of the regular patronage. The ladies, however, are welcome from 1:30 to 9:30 p.m. The restaurant is open Monday through Friday, but closed on weekends. You'll find all your German specialties here, and we assure you that you will not be disappointed.

SINALOA MEXICAN CANTINA
1416 Powell Street
San Francisco
781-9624

Blend together gourmet dining, fine service, Hispanic atmosphere, outstanding Latin talent and you come up with the Sinaloa, the North Beach landmark which has been operated since the late 1920's by the endurable Luz Garcia. Luz has wined and dined celebrities from the world of show business, and entertained royalty from Europe, during her long career as hostess-proprietor. Her unflagging spirit and devotion have given inspiration to others, as she oversaw every phase of her operation for many years. Her menu of Mexican specialties still ranks as the final word in variety and encompasses every known dish and its variation. Among our personal favorites are the Combination Plate (taco, enchilada, chile relleno, rice and refried beans), the Burritos (long strips of New York steak rolled into tortilla) and, of course, Luz's superb omelettes. As always, there is an all-Latin revue featuring some superb talent, including the remarkable Sandovals.

SANTINI'S RESTAURANT
2214 South El Camino Real
San Mateo

SAN FRANCISCO FISHERMAN'S WHARF

CROWDS UNLIMITED — The above scene is not uncommon at the Chicken Unlimited. This fine San Mateo eatery has been in business for shortly over a year and has established a record sale of both eat-in and take-out chicken. Many specials are featured throughout the year which are well worth your dining and $$$ attention.

SHANGHAI LOW
532 Grant Avenue
San Francisco
982-2007 or 986-9835

This place of business is now in its 57th year, serving San Francisco gourmets who delight in authentic Chinese food. Its location in the heart of Chinatown provides that much more realism as you partake in your favorite dishes. There are complete Chinese lunches and dinners (at moderate prices, we might be so bold to add). Banquet facilities are available, and there is free parking close at hand. The establishment is open for business every day except Tuesday.

SURF HOUSE
1875 Norfolk Street
San Mateo
341-2661

Dapper Ron Giannotti hosts Peninsula personalities and world travelers in the quietly sumptuous dininy room and lounge of his Surf House, located "by the Lagoon" in San Mateo. Service is both a la carte and full course. Luncheon is served 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Tuesday through Sunday. Cocktails in the intimate lounge daily 'til 2 a.m. Open seven days a week.

STUART ANDERSON'S
BLACK ANGUS STEAK HOUSE
9th Avenue and Claremont
San Mateo.
342-6336

These famous steak houses of the Pacific Northwest have opened their first "one-price" restaurant in San Mateo to resounding public acclaim. Much of their choice beef is provided by Stuart Anderson's own herd on his 20,000 acre Black Angus Cattle Ranch of Central Washington. The Black Angus breed has won more than twice as many championships in the show ring at Chicago as all other breeds combined. A selection of choice steak cuts ranging from New York, T-Bone and Filet Mignon are all one price, $3.95. A crips salad, Washington baked potato and toasted ranch bread are included in the dinner. Hefty ranch cuts and lobster are a dollar more. Million dollar showcase has smart, yet relaxed western decor. Service is friendly and prompt. Open seven days for lunch and dinner. "Happy Hour" Mondays through Fridays, 50-cent cocktails and complimentary hot hors d'oeuvres. Pianobar entertainment in the lounge Tuesdays through Saturdays. Excellent banquet facilities for up to 200.

SHADOWS
213 Second Avenue
San Mateo
344-5761

Since June of 1951, this Bavarian-style, Alpine-atmospheric restaurant has served its unusual German specialties to literally hundreds of thousands of patrons. Its reputation remains solid because of both the food and the personalities of the men who run the business: Dave Rasmussen is owner, Bill Mills is executive chef, George McCaman is general manager who doubles as maitre'd and Walter Gum is the ever-pouring bartender. In any given day, Mills spends many hours in the kitchen supervising the careful preparation of such delectable dishes as Gebackener Schinken, Rotwein Sauce (cured ham baked in burgundy); Hasenpfeffer mit Spaetzle (Belgian hare saute with paste); Garniertes Wiener Schnitzel (breaded veal cutlet, Vienna-style) and Kasseler Rippchen (smoked pork loin). The Banquet Room at the Shadows occupies almost the entire ground floor of the former Crocker-Citizens National Bank building and seats up to 250 people.

SAN RAKU
505 Second Avenue
San Mateo
343-9785

It is here you will partake in genuine Japanese dishes—the kind that bring to mind teahouses and jasmine and paddies of rice. Luncheon and dinners are served every day (except Monday) from 11:30 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. Among the specialities are Chicken Teriyaki, Tempura Sushi, Teriyaki Sukiayaki.

STICKNEY'S HICK'RY HOUSE
1852 El Camino Real
Redwood City
366-8486

This is the one and only original Stickney's — all his other enterprises have come in the wake of this eatery's success. And that success has, indeed, been phenomenal. Adrian "Red" Stickney has been serviny the Bay Area since 1950 with his unique foods. Naturally, the speciality of the house are the barbecued spareribs, cooked over a wood fire of oak and fruitwood and smothered in a rich, tangy sauce. Another house favorite is the Old Fashioned Beef Stew — morsels of choice beef, with carrots and whole sweet Irish potatoes. All of the mouth-watering pastries served here are baked in Stickney's own bakery, located directly behind the restaurant. Stickney's sports the world-famous Copper collection, a good portion of which came from the old Waldorf Astoria in New York. Many of these pieces are prized as antiques. You will be equally impressed with the large selection of original oil paintings by Ray Strong, William Hansen and William R. Leigh. One curving panoramic scene is of covered wagons moving over the prairie, with real life artifacts in the foreground. We recommend Stickney's for family dining at very reasonable rates.

SUNSET JOE'S
4101 Judah Street
San Francisco
665-1146

Last March Christopher Tassos, after working two years as Captain in the dining room at International Joe's, opened his own operation in the Sunset District of San Francisco, and in less than three months has built it into a thriving business, similar in operation to all the other Joe's Restaurants. Working with him are executive chef Richard Weber and cook Ron Montoya, both formerly of International Joe's also. The specialty of the house is the Bonne Femme (crab meat and shrimp, sauteed in white wine with mushrooms and chives and a special sauce only Tassos knows the recipe for. The restaurant is open 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily until 9 p.m. on Sunday. On Thursdays there is a special Family Nite Dinner for only $3. Tassos is also introducing a Sunday Morning Brunch with Spinach Omelette Florentine and Ham Omelette Gasconne.

SCOTTY CAMPBELL'S
2907 El Camino Real
Redwood City
369-3773

This is one of the most popular dining meccas on the Peninsula—it is the kind of place customers keep returning to as long as there is breath in their bodies. Owners Theresa and Bud Urban (and Theresa's sister, Mary Lou Francis) have turned this into a picturesque location, adorned by a collection of antiques from all over the world. Dark woods, a fireplace and other effects lend hospitable warmth. Steaks, prime ribs of beef, baby ribs, Jumbo Lobster Tail, Chicken and Beef Brochette, Flambee are all part of the wonderful menu. For dessert we never pass up the Maerd Eip, Scotty Campbell's own special cheespie. Open seven days a week from 5 p.m. on.

Break Bread At Noted Omar Khayyam's

George Mardikian's Omar Khayyam's Restaurant is known throughout California and to people all over the world. It's a real pleasure for people living around San Francisco to take their guests to this establishment because of its wonderful atmosphere. The mural paintings by a famous artist against the beautiful Philipine mahogany paneling with the Gulistan carpeting on the floor and soft lighting gives you the true feeling of luxurious dining.

The famous owner, Mr. George Mardikian, is known for his philanthropic work, but he is mostly loved by people because of his zeal and zest for America and for his undying desire to serve and save anything America stands for. Without hesitation, it can be said he is the most prolific speaker. There is hardly a day that he doesn't speak for a college, high school, university, service club or various other clubs always singing his "Song of America" which, of course everyone knows is the title of his latest book. And, according to Mr. Mardikian, that book is the outcome of a surpressed desire he has had for mnny years to tell all of those who are lucky enough to be born in this country why they should daily thank God for being an American.

It is a great joy and a privelege to talk to Mr. Mardikian. He not only makes you feel like a king and queen who are dining there (and he always sees that we do meet kings and queens, and presidents from all walks of life). However, Mr. Mardikian's kings and queens are his patrons who make it possible for him to be of help to his fellowman.

One of the great traditions at Omar Khayyam's has been "breaking bread" with the traditional Armenian Lavash bread. All those who come into his restaurant and "break bread" automatically become his honored guests and it is this ceremony that started the phrase "Let's break bread for friendship."

Omar Khayyam's staff is trained under Mr. Mardikian's guidance. He has not only injected into the hearts of the dining room staff, Maitre d', captain, waiters and busboys, but into his kitchen help beginning with the chef to all the cooks, pantrymen and dishwashers, that they must inject love into their work because when one loves what he is doing, it stops being a chore—it becomes an art.

All in all, one must go there and taste his food and enjoy his hospitality to know what Omar Khayyam's is like. Mr. Mardikian is the man who made Shish Kebab, pilaff, paklava and kouzou kzartma new words in the American vocabulary. But he is just as proud of his steaks, chops and poultry as he is of his Middle Eastern and Armenian delicacies.

George Mardikian's Omar Khayyam's is the only world renowned restaurant that refuses to sell anything but California wines. He believes that California produces just as fine wines as anywhere else in the world.

Children are the most welcome segment of his patrons. He says there is a method to his madness. After all, today's children will be tomorrow's patrons. And invariably he will refer with a great deal of pride to a mother or father whom he used to carry in his arms 30 years ago in his original Omar Khayyam's.

So why don't you make plans to dine at Omar Khayyam's Restaurant and meet George Mardikian, the American.

STAGECOACH ROOM
520 El Camino Building
San Mateo
344-6311

Just a few months ago Stickney revamped his menu and now offers special plates — and prices — that better appeal to the family trade, as well as those who are seeking atmosphere and fine food in an exquisite setting. As with the Hick'ry House, the main entree here is the barbecue spareribs in the rich sauce. Other recommended dishes: Broiled Sirloin en Brochette (skewered and broiled with green pepper, pineapple and mushrooms), the Roast Sirloin of Beef, Western beef Stew with Fresh Vegetables, and Stickney's Chicken Pot Pie. Another fine aspect to this restaurant is the fact that its staff is made up entirely of waiters, giving the establishment that much more environment and class. Some dinners start as low as $2.25. Stickney Enterprises, Inc., now has eating places in Redwood City, Palo Alto, Santa Clara and San Mateo.

VILLA HOTEL
4000 S. El Camino Real
San Mateo
341-0966

Convenient? Well, the Villa is located just minutes from San Francisco International Airport (there is 24-hour courtesy limousine service) and is adjacent to the Hillsdale Shopping Center. And it offers not only 200 luxurious rooms but a coffee shop which is now featuring a new luncheon-dinner menu that includes Tenderloin Tips for only $2.25. There is a la carte service 24 hours a day. Complimentary hors d'ouevres are served daily until 8:30 p.m. Rosemarie is at the piano bar 5 to 9 p.m. Monday through Friday, with Teddy Noga's Eastman Trio providing dance music from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Steve Norton, director of sales and publicity specialist, has been instrumental in helping to build this hotel's reputation over the past four years. The hotel is owned by Joseph Greenbach Jr.

TOMMY'S JOYNT
Van Ness at Geary
San Francisco
775-4216

The fire-engine red building which stands at the corner of Van Ness and Geary across from the Jack Tar Hotel was once a three-story Victorian mansion. Now, with its two top floors sliced off, it's a hofbrau restaurant owned and operated by Tommy Harris, entertainer and singer from the early days of radio. Signs proclaim the Joynt, the "One, Only and Original." Novel as it is, the decor merely shows off the food — the big showcase with several carvers slicing bigger-than-average portions of turkey, ham, beef, pastrami and corned beef for sandwiches or hot plates, at less than average prices. Unique dishes such as Buffalo Stew, which is not served at any other resutant in the West, the Turkey Texas Chili and the Bean and Beer Soup demonstrates the showmanship that has made Tommy's Joynt a San Francisco landmark for the last 20 years. On the refreshment side, 70 varieties of beers from all over the world; behind the long bar a dozen imported cheeses and traditional hard-boiled eggs.

TINOS
1208 El Camino Real
San Mateo
573-7555

Tino's European restaurant, which not only celebrated a recent first anniversary, but also the opening of a "double capacity" dining room and cocktail lounge, features superb French-Continental cuisine. A cheery atmosphere is provided with the combination of white cloth covered tables, colorful napkins and glasses and candlelight. In the center of the dining room is a brick-covered open-top grill which serves as a central chafing dish and a place to keep dishes warm while they are being served. The wine card indicates a careful selection of vintages; cocktails served at your table or in the cozy lounge. Tino's is the first American restaurant venture for the Costantino brothers, Rosario, Umberto and Tino. Luncheon from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Tuesday through Friday; dinners from 5 p.m. to 10 p.m. daily. Not open Mondays

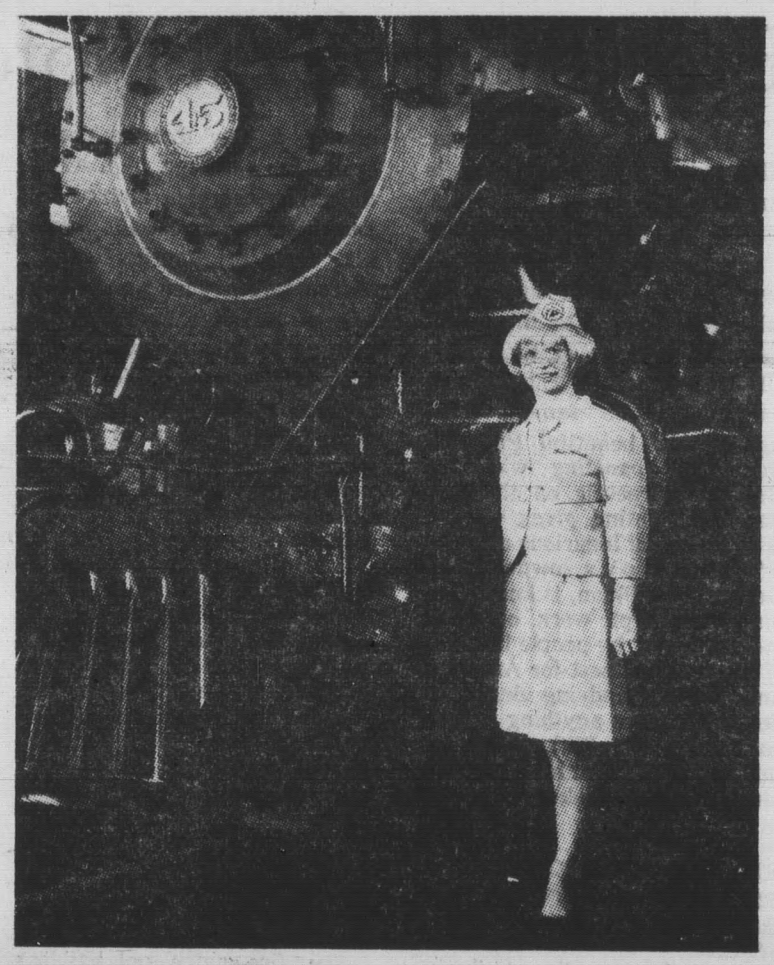
'Skunk' Trains Wend Their Way Thru Enchanted Forests

"It's like a fairy tale come true, it's like a trip through an enchanted kingdom, it's the most rewarding thing I've ever done" . . . these are just a few of the remarks heard on the affectionately named "Skunk" trains as they wend their leisurely way through California's spectacularly impressive Redwood Empire. For railroad buffs and youngsters growing up in a jet travel age, just the train trip itself is a unique experience; but with their front and side windows the Skunks are perfectly mated to put you in the front row of one of Nature's most majestic shows.

The self-powered railcars called Skunks were inaugurated in 1925 by the California Western Railroad, linking historic Fort Bragg with Willits, forty miles inland along a route through magnificent wilderness scenery inaccessible to auto travel. The little trains were nicknamed for their original gas engines prompting folks to say, "You can smell 'em before you can see em!" Beginning in 1965, the CWR added an authentic, old-time passenger train called the "Super Skunk." Powered by a Mikado type steam locomotive almost a half-century old, the Super Skunk is the only regularly scheduled, standard-gauge steam train passenger service in the West.

Skunk Tours of 1050 Van Ness Avenue in San Francisco has put together a very attractive package incorporating all of the scenic highlights of the area: a ride by deluxe motor coach leaving San Francisco at 8 a.m., stopping in Santa Rosa's Luther Burbask Gardens for a look into the botanical wizard's realm, on to visit Ripley's Believe-It-or-Not church built from one redwood tree, lunch, and arrival in Willits.



THE SKUNK TOUR — Miss Janet Gray stands beside the steam engine known as "The Super Skunk."Miss Gray is a hostess on this famous railroad that goes through the redwoods from Willits to Fort Bragg. An overnight complete tour package is available at Skunk Tours, 1950 Van Ness, San Francisco.

PINE BEACH INN
HIGHWAY ONE
(South of Fort Bragg)
707-964-5603

Want to get away from it all? Tired of the every day grind? Ever dream of a life of romantic adventure and relaxation? Then we offer you . . . Pine Beach Inn, located just four miles south of Fort Bragg on Highway One (P.O. Box 1055). This is a superb site to get away from it all, in redwood country that is outstanding for its fishing and abalone. This is a superb rendezvous site for skin divers and their families, and boats are available for launching. Plenty of room for individual beach combing. Pick up your own driftwood. The Inn itself offers food and cocktails, and color TV in each and every motel accomodation.

Tiny Tim Has Baseball To Thank For His Success

Would you believe we have baseball to thank for Tiny Tim?

Tiny Tim believes it. In the June issue of Playboy Magazine, Tiny says his love of baseball was one of the prime factors in his rise to the heights of show business success.

"From 1944 to 1947," says Tiny, "I listened to every Dodgers game on the radio — every game of the season. In those days, Red Barber used to describe the road game from a ticker tape. And he always said, when someone like Eddie Stanky came up, that the greats of the game had real hustle. Even though it might have been the last of the ninth, with two outs and a full count on him, Mr. Stankey would manage to get on base—because he had moxie.

"That's where I got my nerve—from scrappers like Mr. Stanky, Mr. Reese, Mr. Robinson, Louie Almo, and Frenchie Bordergray I learned to say to myself, 'There are people who have 10 times the talent you do, so you've got to hustle.' And that's my secret—persistence."

Tiny admits in the Playboy interview that his parents thought he was pretty weird when as a boy he would sit alone in his room and listen to every single inning of every single Dodgers game, and he warned his bride, Miss Vicki, of his passion before their marriage.

"I told her I can get very emotional when the Dodgers are playing," says Tiny. "I can be very hard to live with during a hot pennant race. I'm glued to the TV screen, watching and praying. If my team loses, I just want to be alone. She thoroughly understood."

'Tan Your Hide' At Hoberg's Then 'Cool It' In The Evening Dancing Under The Stars

Get "out of the fog and into the sun" and tan that skin of yours to a golden brown at Hoberg's, the resort among the pines located in Lake County. The Summer Season begins on Sunday, June 28, then comes the spectacular Fourth of July Holiday with many exciting features planned for this three-day and night extravaganza. Avoid disappointment at the check-in desk by making your reservation now for the Independence Day celebrations. And while at Hoberg's, you can participate in swimming, tennis, nightly dancing, hiking, golf, baseball, water sports, horseback riding and countless other forms of recreation. To make reservations locally, call the San Francisco branch office at 982-4986.

ROMAN RUINS

Ashkelon, Israel's year-round resort on the Mediterranean coast, is the location of what archaeologists consider to be the most beautiful Roman ruins outside Italy. The Americas Automobile Association reveals that the Israeli government plans to make a national park of the extensive ruins.

SAN MATEO WAS CHOSEN for the first Northern California location of Stuart Anderson's Black Angus Steak House. The famous steak houses have locations in Seattle, Tacoma, Yakima and other cities of the Pacific Northwest, as well as San Diego. All steak dinners are $3.95, choose your cut. Much of the choice beef comes from Stuart Anderson's own Black Angus Ranch in Central Washington. The million-dollar restaurant, a familiar sight at Ninth and Claremont, was acquired from previous owners and renovated with a casual, relaxed decor to fit in with the western dining. Entertainment is featured in the cocktail lounge Tuesday through Saturday, It has no connection with any other San Mateo restaurants of the past.

WAX MUSEUM
Fisherman's Wharf
San Francisco
885-4975

In actuality, there are only a few wax museums throughout the world that have gained noticeable attention. However, one of those which has gained attention, and rave reviews with it, is the Wax Museum located at Fisherman's Wharf. As you walk among the figures, you will swear that some of them are real in this unique "house of wax." More than 200 celebrities have been done up and a fine job it is. Marlene Dietrich, Brigitte Bardot, Marilyn Monroe and countless others are there for you to pause and stare at. (If one of them seems to be winking back, don't be surprised). Another part of the Wax Museum is the Chamber of Horrors, which is certainly not for the squeamish. This showcase, which was first opened to the public on a Halloween evening back in 1965, houses assorted blood-curdling tableaus, pointing out that man is far from being a perfect animal. All in all, you'll find this wax museum a special event, one which you will want to return to from time to time to remind yourself of man's infamy—and glory.

Belmont
591-9870

Leo Martay, owner, chef and manager of the Whistle Stop, is in the process of remodeling the establishment. Railroad style clubcar booths are already in position. To add a little touch of the Old West, various names of old-time railroad lines are painted on each booth. To come is plush carpeting. Take out orders of hamburgers, steaks and chicken will be featured as well as regular service. One of the largest salad bars on the Peninsula is afforded fanciers of "dagwood" style sandwiches. Serving breakfast from 8 a.m.; open seven days 'til midnight.

UNUSUAL CROWN-SHAPED STEEPLE on main church in Puerto Vallarta dominates skyline of Mexican port. Ship in background is Princess Carla of Princess Cruises. Los Angeles-based line sends both 754-passenger Princess Carla and 520-passenger Prince Italia on cruises to Puerto Vallarta and other ports of call on the Mexican Riviera.

California Vacations Regular And Mini

California now comes in two sizes — regular and mini. The standard size is tailored for travelers on a long vacation who head directly for the "tourist capitals" of Disneyland and Hollywood. The mini size is designed for the growing number of people on three to four-day mini-vacations over a long weekend who seek the "hidden" attractions of California that lie just off the high speed highways.

The instant short-trip vacation over a long weekend has opened a new world of excitement for travelers in the Golden State. Many use their mini-vacation to take a quick break in their day-in day-out routine and shoot off to some beach area for water sports or drive up to the mountains for a refreshing day or two away from home. Modern roads and modes of transportation have made it easy for the West Coast driver to reach his mini-vacation destination in only a matter of hours.

As vacationers speed along the Interstate Highway System in their upholstered isolation booths on wheels, they often miss opportunities to visit some truly thrilling California attractions. According to an in-depth study recently completed by 3M National Advertising Company, a leading source for travel research information, eight out of ten motorists said they planned their stops while they were traveling. As a result, these 70 mph drivers have come to depend on a number of aids to help them make their on-the-road stopping decisions, including radio messages, outdoor signs, guide books, brochures and map-directories.

Many travelers rely on Travelaide, the map-directory, to find scenic attractions that could easily be overlooked while driving at high speeds through unfamiliar territory. The Travelaides are available free at most Interstate service stations. The Travelaide includes a "strip" map which focuses on the Interstate highways, interchanges and feeder highways, plus a directory that lists, by exit, accommodations such as motels, restaurants, tourist attractions and recreation areas.

Knott's Berry Farm, the best known of the group, located on Beach Boulevard (Highway 39) just two miles south of the freeway exit, offers vacationers a relaxing and interesting side trip. This 150-acre park with its free parking facilities is a must for children who enjoy ghost towns, gold mines, stagecoach and train rides. While junior pans for real gold, or watches the staged western gunfight, mother can enjoy herself in the park's gift shops. The family doesn't even have to leave the park to enjoy a hearty meal at either the Knott's Berry Farm chicken dinner restaurant or steak house.

Alaska Airlines Offers Many Tours And Excitement Of The Gold Rush Days

—ALASKA AIRLINES OFFERS
Many Tours and Excitement
Of The Gold Rush Days

"It's Alaska"! Unique travel promotions are not new to Alaska Airlines. Alaska Airlines' jets feature the "Gay Nineties Gold Rush" decor complete with red, gold and green velvet-tufted seats, deep-pile red carpeting, red velvet curtains with gold tassels and trim, and stewardesses dressed in turn-of-the-century costumes. Alaska Airlines has carried its Gold Rush theme throughout its system by decorating ticket offices appropriately and dressing ticket personnel in red vests with skimmer hats, string bow ties, and sleeve garters. Much of the "It's Alaska" stage show will contain costuming and songs depicting the Alaska Gold Rush era.

Alaska Airlines, because of its mergers with Cordova Airlines and Alaska Coastal Airlines within Alaska, serves most of the tourist attractions and 95 per cent of the population of the forty-ninth state. Southeastern Alaska is the home of the Chilkat Indians and the site of the famed inside passage with its miles and miles of beautifully wild, forested waterfront, fjords, glaciers, world famous salmon fishing grounds, and picturesque fishing villages. Southeastern cities include old Russian Sitka, gateway to southeastern Alaska, Ketchikan, Petersburg, Wrangell, Juneau . . . Alaska's capital city, Haines, and Skagway.

Alaska Airlines serves the coastal communities of Yakutat and Cordova, the Kenai Peninsula communities of Seward and Soldotna, and the gateway city of Anchorage. Anchorage is Alaska's largest city and the commercial hub of Alaskan business and industry. Alaska Airlines also serves Fairbanks, Alaska's second largest city, and Dawson City in Yukon Territory, the famous "City of Gold," with weekend tours from Anchorage. And, Alaska Airlines operates the popular two-day Arctic Adventure Tours to Nome and Kotzebue. The Arctic is the site of the historical Gold Rush of '98.

Alaska Airlines' two-day Arctic tour includes a unique new "Shadow of Siberia" flight . . . a flight which reaches the end of all time zones of the world — the International Date Line. At this point passengers look from today into tomorrow, viewing that imaginary single point on the globe where East meets West . . . the dividing point between two continents, two oceans and two days. They view the Siberian coast as weather permits and can see the Diomede Islands — Big Diomede belonging to Russia — Little Diomede to America, separated by less than three miles.

Viking Inn Operated By Mary Knudsen

If you're headed for North Shore, Stateline, at Lake Tahoe, consider dining at Mary Knudsen's Viking Inn, which features continental and American food, seven days a week from 6 p.m. At this famous dining retreat for vacationers, Mary Knudsen offers Swedish Meatballs, Ham Omelette, Chicken Liver Omelette and Chopped Sirloin Sandwich. And certainly her greatest specialty of all is her Danish open-faced sandwich. You have to eat one of these to believe it could be so good.

Palm Springs Tramway 'Dream' Now A Legend

The Palm Springs Aerial Tramway, climbing smoothly over two and a half miles of cable into the evergreen-studded San Jacinto Mountains — is rapidly becoming one of the West's most popular attractions.

And it's winning this popularity with tourists and local residents alike for good reason.

For nowhere else in the world does there exist such a ride of grand proportions that has found such immediate favor among passengers of all ages.

In just 15 minutes, the huge red-colored Tram cars carry visitors from the world of thorny cactus and yucca plants into a mile and a half high region thickly covered with pine trees and invigorating mountain air.

The Tram, constructed in craggy, ravine-riddled Chino Canyon on the north edge of Palm Springs — less than two hours by car from Los Angeles — didn't just happen.

It was for long years a dream harbored by a young electrical engineer named Francis F. Crocker. In the beginning, his vision was mainly to find a way to escape the desert heat . . . to go up there where it's nice and cool.

That was in 1935. The longer Crocker thought of a quick way of getting to the top of the San Jacinto Mountains, the more the idea of building some sort of conveyance to that cool region jelled.

A lot of dogged work in preparing plans for the Tramway, during which the dream took on some aspects of a nightmare, led Crocker's grand scheme to the committee stage.

In the late 1930's, O. Earl Coffman, co-manager of the famous Palm Springs Desert Inn, was swept up by Crocker's Tram idea and was named chairman of the first Tram planning committee.

But the dream of a Tramway to carry heat-wilted desert visitors and residents to the San Jacinto Mountains, where it was "nice and Cool," never waned.

By 1950, technicians were going full tilt on designs for the Tram and before they were finished had spent more than a quarter of a million dollars solving the riddles of road and tower foundations.

To the hundreds of thousands of persons who have enjoyed the Tramway ride into the majestic mountains overlooking Palm Springs since the popular facility opened in September of 1963, that dream harbored by a young electrical engineer long years ago isn't a dream anymore.

It's legend.

Two-Way Radio Protects Tourists

Where the tourist is sure of fun and sun in safety because of two-way radio.

That well could be a slogan of Honolulu officials — because it's so.

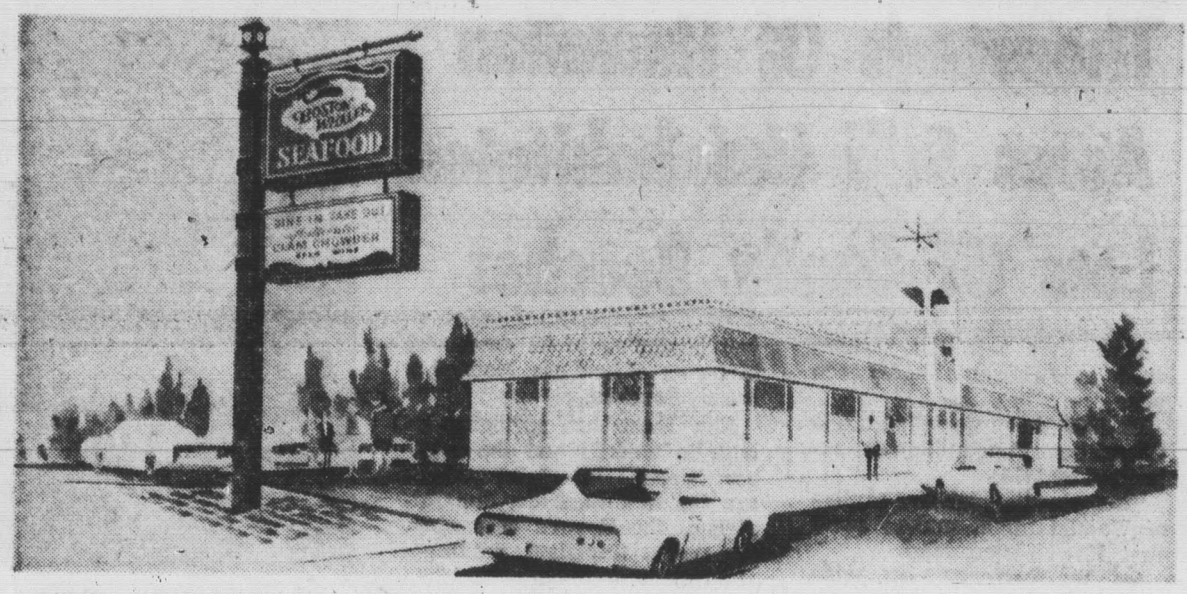
In what electronics experts say well may be the most elaborate use of two-way radio by a U.S. city's police and firefighters, Honolulu guards visitors' safety around the clock.

The most advanced Motorola transmitting and receiving equipment gets communications through in seconds, effectively fences out airwave interference and always delivers, officials say.

If it's untangling a traffic jam, rushing a Fire Department rescue boat on a trailer to a beach or speeding police patrol cars to trouble — it's done swiftly and well with the use of two-way radio.



NEW RESTAURANT OPENS — The Boston Whaler (former site of the South Delaware Hyatt House) is a "whale" of a family restaurant. A glance at their three menus which appear in this edition will give an idea of what to expect when dining here. Serving luncheon and dinner seven days a week; ample parking.

Villa Hotel Known By Guests As Fiestaland—Has New Holiday Package

Serene and sumptuous surroundings is what every vacationer may find when checking into the Villa Hotel, right here in San Mateo . . . known by our Visitors' Bureau . . . as Fiestaland.

Steve Norton, Villa Hotel Director of Sales, who is a believer of packages to develop tourism, is launching a new holiday vacation package at the hotel, in cooperation with the management at Bay Meadows . . and including admission to Marineworld and all its features. Call 341-0966 and ask for Dorothy on extension 611 if you need further details.

In making a statement of his belief in packages, Norton points out that we should note without hesitation that every successful vacationland, used by the numbers, in America today, got on the map and perculating by bundling up their own best features, putting them all in one great package. Thus bringing about such successful vacation meccas as Maimi Beach, Anaheim, Las Vegas and ad infinitem.

We go along with Steve — to his first love — the Villa Hotel. And it is a poignant subject that the standard of the "road" in San Mateo County is to Steve — the Villa Hotel.

"We know how we are regarded by our neighbors and we like it. We know how we are regarded by our competition, and we like that, too."

Thousands Of Hawaiian Acres Still Uninhabitated Lots Of Sandy Beaches

More than a million visitors wash over Hawaii's shores each year.

In 1969 the projected figure is 1.5 million. Four million are expected by 1975.

This plus the high-rise skyline of Waikiki might make it seem that Hawaii is crowded.

On the contrary, it's wide open. A flight to one of the neighbor islands on Hawaiian Air Lines will show hundreds of thousands of acres of lush, uninhabited land and lots of sandy beaches.

Hawaii, Maui and Kauai are just beginning to be developed in terms of land use. Molokai is hardly touched.

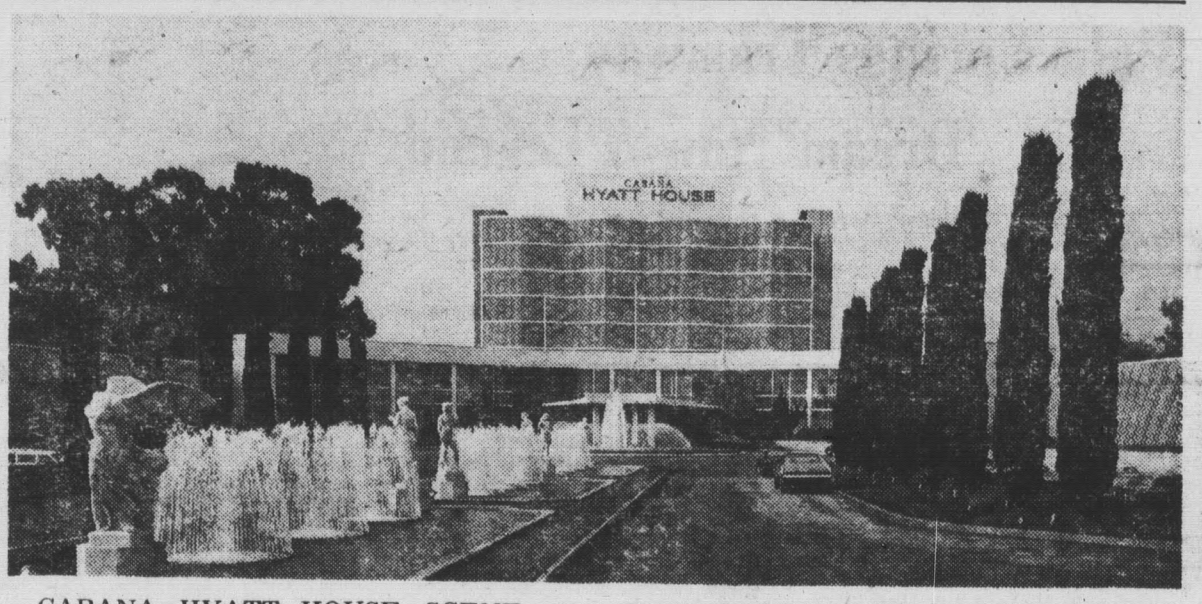
New hotels are springing up both in Waikiki and the neighbor islands. In Waikiki there are the new Surfrider, the Outrigger, the Royal's new wing, the Queen Kapiolani, the Imperial Hawaii — all high-rise jobs.

On Hawaii island the Mauna Kea Beach Hotel has a new wing. A new hotel is going up at nearby Hapuna Beach. The Kona coast is seeing still more.

The scene is being repeated on the other islands. For every plush high-rise hotel there are usually smaller, more modest lodges being built. For Hawaiii is not only for the affluent.

There is quite a play for those of modest purse, both in hotels and in eating places, according to an on-the-spot survey by Pan American World Airways' dedicated "Agent 000."

Pan Am pioneered the air route to Hawaii in 1935. A one-way ticket then cost $360. Now the lowest rate is $85 and seven other airlines compete with the pioneer.



CABANA HYATT HOUSE SCENE — The luxurious Cabana Hyatt House as seen at night with its ever-changing fountains and imported statuary. A Conference and Social Center of San Francisco Peninsula, located two miles south of Stanford University and just 25 minutes from San Francisco International Airport. Spacious pool and deck area, Bon Vivant Supperclub, coffee shop, all the appointments to make your stay a memorable one.

7th Year For Al Bello Cal-Neva Lodge Show

The Al Bello Show opened at North Lake Tahoe's Cal-Neva Lodge last week — signalling the start of three weeks of buffoonery, flashy dancing and quick-witted ad libs.

The Show, in its seventh year, is bigger than ever this year — and can be expected to completely fill the bar-level stage in the Casino Lounge nightly.

More than $6,000 has gone into the choreography and costuming for this year's show. Bello has three girls in a rock band, including featured star of the show Jan Mills, four dancers and one comedienne.

He ccommented: "Audience rapport is number one in importance to me. I usually spend the first 20 minutes of a show 'feeling out' the audience and then present just the kind of entertainment they want. We don't entertain for ourselves."

"Concerned only with the audience, we can provide laughs, listening music, dancing music or revue."

Silver Nugget Offers 12 Acres Of Free Parking

As you cruise through North Las Vegas on your next trip across Nevada, be sure to stop in at the Silver Nugget for a golden time. In addition to Bingo and Keno games, and plenty of slot machines, the Silver Nugget offers a restaurant, and cocktail lounge — not to mention banquet facilities. There are 12 acres of free parking and Monday night prizes galore. You can order breakfast here for only 49 cents, dinner for only $1.19.

Mercado Major Tourist Attraction For San Diego

SAN DIEGO — The $2.5 million Mercado, a major, new Southwest tourist attraction now under construction at Rancho Bernardo, has 43 confirmed tenants and is scheduled to open before Thanksgiving, it was announced today.

Making the announcement, Stuart Ripley, vice president-marketing of Avco Community Developers, Inc., described the Mercado as a "marketplace of adventure" which promises to become a major asset to the San Diego tourism industry.

"Visiting the Mercado will be an experience," Ripley said. "Not only will the visitor be able to shop for a wide range of unusual items, he will also have a chance to see many of these items being made."

Pauline Pannone is the Mercado director and she has obtained a diverse group of merchants.

A visitor may buy a Mexican import or an Indian craft, watch a woodcarver at work, browse through an old English book store, view a gourmet cooking demonstration listen to wandering Mexican mariachis, enjoy a Mexican dinner, go to a first-run movie, and top the day off with a visit to an old-fashioned ice cream parlour.

And there would still be 35 other shops, stores or restaurants he could visit.

Periodically, a thieves' market will take place where all participating merchants will offer special merchandise in an open-market selling place.

Continuous entertainment will be featured, and live birds will add color, beauty, and interest to the main plaza.

Dale Naegle and Associates of La Jolla were architects for the 7.5-acre Mercado. The Spanish design features high, arching entries, red tiled roofs, rough, exposed timbers, cobblestone plazas, ornate Spanish fixtures and fountains.

The Mercado is being built near the intersection of Rancho Bernardo Road and U.S. 395, 22 miles north of downtown San Diego. Rancho Bernardo is a development of ACDI.

DIFFERENCES IN CHINESE PROVINCIAL COOKING
Just as different dialects are spoken in different parts of China, so are there basic differences in the cooking, due to differences in climate, basic foods, condiments available, cooking vessels and methods brought in by the people who live in or have passed thru an area. PARK AVENUE TOURS VIA GREYHOUND BUS — This is a typical daily happening at Greyhound Bus Depots in the Bay Area and in nearby cities. Pictured are a group of happy vacationists about to board a Greyhound Bus to Barney's Club, Stateline, Nevada, hence to the South Tahoe Nugget. Your stay may be for eight hours to two nights, depending on what holiday program is selected. "Special bonuses for all tours" is the Park Avenue Tours policy. Enjoy "entertainment the Nevada Way" when planning a visit to Barney's and the South Tahoe Nugget. In charge of directing the tours is cordial Joseph DuFrane (standing to the right of the unidentified Greyhound bus driver.)

Barney's Club Has Added Many Improvements During Past Years More In Sight For Future

In an age when one thing resembles another so closely that anonymity often sets in, it is refreshing to find a club like Barney's Club (located at Stateline, South Lake Tahoe).

What makes Barney's different from other gaming houses in the area is its attempt to evoke a friendly atmosphere and the kind of decor that puts a patron in the proper frame of mind. It has intjroduced innovation after in ovation during the mind. It has introduced innovation after innovation during the past ten years, and intends to continue on a similar path in years to come. For instance, Barney's now features a new escalator to the second floor which houses a new slot machine section and Hof-Brau restaurant. A $100,000 air condition unit was recently installed.

It is estimated (and properly this is a conservative estimate) that annually 225,000 persons from the Bay Area and northern California visit Barney's on casino-sponsored buses and drive-up packages. This is a staggering figure. It should also be noted that Barney's is still the only club in the area that operates a courtesy bus service to and from the club for motel patrons.

"We have countless improvements in mind for the 1970's," recently commented General Manager Luke Heiman, who is now planning changes with the help of Assistant General Manager, Lou Vlasek.

There is every indication that Barney's is taking the lead among the Stateline casinos, and will be offering more and more courtesies and services to the public as it continues its program of expansion. Catering to the public has always been the keynote to success, but it seems that Barney's has a superior idea about how exactly this has to be done with the greatest results.

Monterey's New Dutch Motor Lodge Most Luxurious

R. Bruce Stadler is the new General Manager at the Dutch Motor Lodge, Monterey's newest and most luxurious. Under his management, the lodge is offering a totally new concept in luxury and hospitality. There are 80 beautifully appointed guest rooms, with remote control color television, reverse cycle air condition, AM-FM radio, direct dial phones, bedside light controls and Wonder Beds.

For your dining pleasure there are two dining rooms and an atmospheric cocktail lounge. Also rooms for parties, banquets and conventions ranging from 10 to 185 persons.

The address for this remarkable lodge is 1425 Munras Avenue in Monterey.

HAMLET'S CASTLE

Impressive Kronborg Castle at Elsinore, Denmark, was the setting of the Tragedy that inspired Shaekspear's immortal play, "Hamlet." The American Automobile Association describes the castle as being "the most interesting and monumental Renaissance structure in Scandinavia."

Summer Ideal For Reducing Bermuda Inn

Summer is the ideal time to lose weight. Motivation is high — you want to look smashing in that Bikini, don't you? Fresh fruits and vegetables, low in calories and high in appeal, are more readily available. And pleasant weather makes it more fun to be out of doors — and away from the refrigerator.

Salads are everyone's warm-weather favorites. A variety of crisp and tasty salads play a big role in the menus featured at the world-famous Bermuda Inn Reducing Resort in Lancaster, California. Luncheons served in the beautiful tropical dining room feature a different salad each day.

Try these Bermuda Inn specialties — you'll find them satisfying, delicious and slimming. They are favorites of the more than 3,000 guests per year who lose weight at the Bermuda Inn.

And do try the low-calorie dressings originated by the Inn's dietician with the supervision of the medical staff. They are so delicious that Bermuda Inn guests take the bottled dressings home with them and order them by mail after their stay at the Inn.

Known as "The Resort for Results," Bermuda Inn guests average a weight loss of more than a pound a day under medical supervision. The Inn is located in the scenic Antelope Valley area of Southern California, an hour's drive from Los Angeles.

In addition to the effective reducing program, the Bermuda Inn provides its guests with all the facilities and fun of a deluxe resort — outdoor and indoor pools, gymnasium and spot reducing equipment, beauty salon, massage and day-round entertainment.

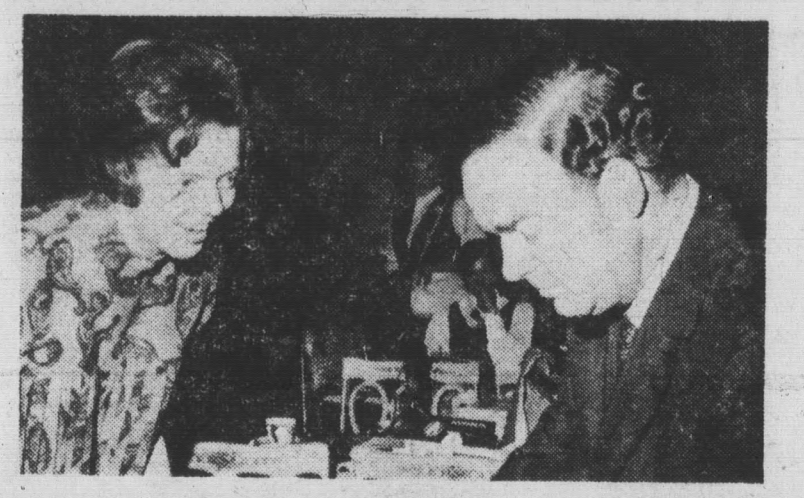
ALASKA FARMING — Panning for gold is just one of the many exciting thrills that awaits adventuresome people to Alaska, the land of opportunity. Alaska Airlines will be glad to arrange your trip.

PONIES IN THE POOL

An increasing number of the nearly 200 thoroughbred horse farms in the Marion County, Fla., area are building swimming pools for their animals, the American Automobile Association reports. Trainers say the $25,000-and-up pools give race horses as much beneficial exercise in a few minutes as they would get in several turns around the track.

QUEEN'S KNITTING

Intricate needlework carpet made by Great Britain's late Queen Mary is a feature attraction of the National Gallery of Canada at Ottwa, Ont. Several thousand paintings, sculptures, prints and drawings also are on permanent display, according to the American Automobile Association.



FEATURED CHEF — Jacqueline Killeen, author of "101 Nights in California" and "101 Secrets of California Chefs," enjoys some of the Peach Flambe prepared by chef George Bollag of L'Auberge in Atherton. Bollag was the featured chef at a special demonstration on gourmet cooking held at the Emporium, San Francisco.

Golden Tours One Trip Daily Sparks Nugget

More popular than ever before are The Golden Tours, now offering one trip daily, and two trips on Friday and Saturday, to John Ascuaga's Nugget in Sparks (East Reno). This deal includes an incredible cash refund on arrival and credit for drinks and food.

Buses leave Monday through Saturday at 10 a.m. from Ed's Smoke Shop, 120 San Carlos Avenue in San Carlos, with extra buses at 7 p.m. on Friday and Saturday.

SAMMY DAVIS, JR.
Harrah's Reno

Lawrence Welk At Harrah's Tahoe

it's bubbling champagne music as Lawrence Welk and his troupe of TV stars headline in the South Shore Room at Harrah's Tahoe, through June 29.

Once again his dixieland to ballroom, jazz to ragtime music is drawing a capacity crowd. The swift pace of his singers dancers, and musicians provides an endless barrage of festivity and music that make a good family show. The selection of scores, sketches, and comedy reflect Welk's wholesome style dashed with an exuberant flair that delights the audience.

The sparkle and bounce of Welk's champagne music always creates a light, happy mood. The performance is balanced with the youthful male and female singers, who bring back old time favorites.

At the Stateline Cabaret are Ireland's Royal Show Band, Lonnie Donegan, Jim Burgett, and The Curtain Calls. Opening on July 22 at Tommy Roe and Brothers James.

Versatile Sammy Davis, Jr., "Mr. Wonderful" of show biz, is scheduled for a 13-day engagement at the Headliner Room at Harrah's Reno beginning June 26. Bobbie Gentry closes Thursday evening, June 25.

The many sides of Davis reveals more than a versatile performer who is a comedian, singer, actor, dancer, musician, and impressionist. As a devoted showman, he explodes with top-caliber talent — as an entertainer who stays on top by always giving his best at every performance.

Palace Club One Of Reno's Brightest

Sure, Reno has its share of gambling casinos, but how many of them convey a genuine aura of excitement and hospitality? The Palace Club is one of Reno's brightest casinos. It is here that you'll feel like you own the casino — everyone who works here rolls a red carpet out at your feet. And once in that frame of mind, you can't lose. Not at the Palace Club.

Hit The Jackpot With "Casino Holiday"

Jacques Noir, PhD, has written "Casino Holiday," which is now available from Oxford Street Press, 1603 Solano Avenue in Berkeley, 94707. "Casino Holiday" is designed to improve your chances up to 400 per cent at playing the slot machines, as it compares slot payoffs for the major casinos in Las Vegas, Reno and Lake Tahoe. Noir's book shows you how to find the liberal machines and shows you the odds breakdown for them. Noir has also included a One Two county system for Blackjack, which he says if you master will bring you untold riches. This is the complete casino guide if you intend to gamble. The cost is $7.95 plus tax, or a complete $8.35.

Homewood Marina Lodge For Family Recreation

Located on Highway 89, on the west shore of Lake Tahoe, the Homewood Marina Lodge is known as the center for family recreation. During the winter there are complete facilities for skiing, and during the summer all you need for boating is available. There are single and family unit cabins with kitchens. Contact Manager Juanita Fincher at 525-7256, or write in care of P.O. Box 165, 93718.

Special Note To Shad Fishermen Georgia's Place

Anglers are in for a treat when they seek the hard fighting shad near here at the most famous shad hole in Georgia.

During the spring run, the fishing verges on fantastic, and if you can't hook two on one cast frequently, there's probably something wrong with your fishing ability. It's not the shad's fault, even if they are well confused.

Their confusion is what makes Georgia's shad hole so productive, and so easy to fish. Years ago, the migratory shad, which come into fresh water each spring to spawn, meandered much farther up the Savannah river. Then the dam was built near Augusta, but the instinct-driven shad don't allow for man-made obstacles. As a result, they annually continue to steam upstream, only to be barred by man's concrete barrier.

This confuses them, and for several days they mill around just below the dam, then finally, deciding that nature is playing games, drop down stream to spawn. Periodically, new schools of fish arrive to follow the same routine. During the run, it's an automatic restocking of the hole every 48 to 72 hours.

Shad anglers have it made. It's only a five-minute run by boat from the nearest launching ramp. They anchor in the river and proceed to see how many doubles they can hook by casting with spinning gear or light bait tackle.

CLOSE CALL — Bob Close and the Playboys, an exciting combo that plays now music, performs Wednesday through Sunday of every week at Cafe El Portal, a San Francisco restaurant located at Fulton and Eighth Avenue, just across the street from Golden Gate Park, Close and his boys are long-standing favorites at this popular spot.

Ponderosa Ranch Features 'Under The Stars' Cowboy Steak Feed

Not everything is Navada is stage shows and slot machines.

At the Ponderosa Ranch, on the north shore of Lake Tahoe, the emphasis is on the old west as it was, and the Cartwright's famous ranch house as it is, every Sunday evening on NBC's top-rated Bonanza.

For a two-dollar gate admission, the Ponderosa delivers a powerful return on your investment. First a wagon ride up the slope to tour Ben's, Hoss', and Little Joe's ranch house. Then there's stage coach rides, carnival rides for the kiddies and a stroll down one of the liveliest frontier towns in history. There's also a museum, general store, glass shop, wine shop and the Silver Dollar Saloon.

And this week, Bill Anderson, owner of the ranch, is adding still another feature: An "under the stars" cowboy steak feed each evening from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. There's no gate admission for this, all Bill Anderson asks is that you bring a big appetite.

If you think eating out of doors is fun, wait 'til you try it in the surroundings of the Ponderosa Ranch

Pine Beach Inn Superb Rendezvous

Want to get away from it all? Tired of the everyday grind? Ever dream of a life of romantic adventure and relaxation? Then we offer you . . . . Pine Beach Inn, located just four miles south of Fort Bragg on Highway One (P.O. Box 1055). This is a superb site to get away from it all, in redwood country that is outstanding for its fishing and abalone. This is a superb rendezvous site for skin divers and their families, and boats are available for launching. Plenty of room for individual beachcombing. Pick up your own driftwood. The Inn itself offers food and cocktails, and color TV in each and every motel accommodation.

South Tahoe Nugget Reflects Operators' Progressive Attitude

Some of the innovations being introduced at Barney's Casino are reflected in what is happening at the South Tahoe Nugget, a sister club located about a half-mile from Stateline, South Lake Tahoe, Nevada.

Like Barney's, the South Tahoe Nugget reflects a progressive attitude among casino operators — give the public the very finest in service, gaming facilities, food and beverages.

The atmosphere at the South Tahoe Nugget is an intimate one and while it may be small in size, it is big on enthusiasm and promise. Employees are friendly, and try to give each and every customer personalized service.

The South Tahoe Nugget is an active spot for today, but one of Nevada's great hopes for tomorrow. Lou Chartrand is the active owner and general manager.

Walt's Resort Lake County Mineral Spring Spa

Walt's Resort is a mineral spring spa located on beautiful Clear Lake. Units come with one, two or three bedrooms, depending on your needs. There is a playground for children, private beach and marina, boat and motor rentals, fishing, water skiing and swimming, and golf course is only minutes away. Write to owner .W P. Golceff for information about off-season accommodations. Clubs and organizations are welcome at this lovely recreation spot.

Record Fish Catches

Bahamian waters have yielded nearly 60 world record fish, it is reported by the International Game Fish Association. They include all tackle records for barracuda, bonito, dolphin and wahoo as well as women's all tackle records for bonefish, bonito, blue and white marlin and Atlantic tuna.

BROTHER-SISTER DUO — The Carpenters will be the final group to appear in the Lakeside Casino Lounge at Kings Castle Hotel and Casino, Incline Village, North Shore, Lake Tahoe. They are slated to play the intimate bistro through June 30. The Lakeside lounge will be replaced on July 1 by the new Jesters Court Theater. Ike and Tina Turner and "Flesh," a Line Renaud Review, are headlining the lounge lineup during the grand opening festivities, July 1-5.

More Than 100 Years Of Wine Experience

It was back in the year 1861 when Charles Krug planted his very first vineyard and built his first wine cellar in the town of St. Helena.

Now, with more than one hundred years of experience behind it, the Charles Krug Winery is considered one of the finest in the world.

It is open daily to visitors to lovely Napa Valley, with guides conducting tours of the grounds and buildings, and then to the scenic Tasting Room to sample the wares. You can make reservations for picnics in the barbecue area of the Charles Krug Winery.

Vacation At Pine Acres In The Gold Country

Pine Acres Resorf is a superb place in the Gold Country to spend this summer's vacation away from the helter skelter of your everyday existence.

Located in the heart of the historic Mother Lode, on Highway 88 in Amador County, this resort site offers good fishing, unpolluted air, recreation for all ages. Explore old mining ruins, pan for gold. There are motels, housekeeping cottages, a trailer park and campgrounds. For a free color brochure write to Pine Acres Resort, Box 56, M. Pine Grove, Calif. 95665, or call (209) 296-4650.

Great Summer Line Up For Sahara-Tahoe Crowds

A season of stars ranging from top names in the High Sierra Theater to equally popular entertainers in the Juniper Lounge, marks the sixth summer of entertainment at the Sahara-Tahoe Hotel at Stateline, Nevada.

Superstar on tap is Jack Benny, who appears with the New Kingston Trio through June 23.

Next in line is the great "Concert In Stero" presented by composing - performing genius Ray Conniff.

Others adding to a summer of unprecedented stars and sensational shows, are favorites like Danny Kaye, Jane Morgan, George Gobel, Chet Atkins, Boots Randolph, Floyd Cramer (The latter three in a special Festival of Music concert), and country-western super star Eddy Arnold.

In the Juniper Lounge great things are happining, too.

Take for instance the return of Johnny Ray, August 17-30, following a sensational May engagement. Or the always popular Rusty Draper set for an appearance through July 15.

Super soul singer Jackie Wilson will appear in the Juniper Lounge, June 22-July 5 and other favorites like Dennis Day, The Treniers, Andy Russell, Chubby Checker and The Mob are all set for this summer.

It's simply the greatest summer lineup ever at the Sahara-Tahoe.

PEDESTRIANS ONLY

Vehicular traffic has been barred from the small square in front of Rome's famed Trevi (Three Coins). Fountain, according to the American Automobile Association's office in the Italian capital. The ban is being conducted on an experimental basis, and probably will be lifted if it results in a substantially greater degree of traffic congestion in the surrounding area.

Park Avenue Tours Offers Many Bonus Packages

There are four offices in the Bay Area to serve you for the ever-popular Park Avenue Tours: in San Francisco, Oakland, San Jose and San Mateo. Whether you're driving your own automobile, going by scheduled or chartered bus and taking an overnight tour, or even flying, Park Avenue Tours has a package deal designed to save you money and put you in style at your destination. The various Lake Tahoe packages offer money savings bonuses, with cash, food and cocktails being presented upon arrival.

Overnight guests will enjoy luxurious motel accommodations at reasonable prices,and you're certain to be located in the heart of the fun and gambling areas. For those who fly, the various flight packages offer bonuses.

And, if you just happen to be headed for Reno, Las Vegas or Disneyland, Park Avenue Tours can offer you money-saving deals in these entertainment meccas.

EUROPE IS TOPS

Nearly eight of every 10 Americans traveling abroad during the latest 12-month period of passport statistical study made Europe their first choice as a destination. The American Automobile Association discloses that 78 per cent of the 1.8 million U.S. passports issued from October, 1968, through September, 1969, were intitially stamped in European countries.

EARLY METROPOLIS

Majestic pyramids, temples and courts comprise the ancient complex of San Juan Teotihuacan in the Mexico City area of Mexico. The American Automobile Association says Teotihuacan is believed to have had a population of 125,000 persons in its heyday between 350 and 100 B.C., making it one of the largest cities of its time in the world.

RELAXED ADELAIDE

Relaxation is a built-in feature of Adelaide, Australia, according to the American Automobile Association. The city was originally planned so that no inhabitant would ever be more than a short walk from a public park or garden, and just a brief ride from either seaside or mountain recreational facilities.

Crystal Bay Club North Lake Tahoe For Entertainment

If you want to go where the action is, the Crystal Bay Club at North Lake Tahoe is the place — and it's provided by the Action Faction, a star-studded group. They are fresh, young, talented, and as the name implies, there's plenty of action. Ringleader of the versatile seven young people is Jim MANdrake, who sings, dances, plays musical instruments, and is a all-round entertainer. Three beautiful girls are involved in the festivities, Kathy Karr, Cheryl Honnegar and Jance Ross, who are sisgers, dancers instrumentalists, and comedians, blending perfectly into the happy party. Bob Ross is trumpeter and vocalist, Ed Martinez first and solo trumpet, and John Krieger on the drums. This group is destined for great heights in show biz. Appearing also, on the same bill is the Ben Sherwin Group.

H. E. McCloseky, chairman of the board of the new Crystal Bay Club, announced that the groundbreaking ceremonies of his 240-room high-rise hotel will be in August. The 11-story hotel will be built with underground parking facilities for 480 cars. The new and very luxurious hotel, when completed, will have showrooms for top name entertainment.

Al King Talent Scout Extraordinaire

"Entertainer Counselor" is how he often bills himself. Others in the Bay Area have referred to him as "The King of Bookings" and "Talent Scout Extraordinaire." Suffice to say that Al King is a king-pin when it comes to booking acts here in the Bay Area, and he has discovered, literally, hundreds of new acts. In taking the chance of breaking in these novelty acts, he has endeared himself to both entertainers and night club owners. "Al," said one of those owners, "is a guy with guts." You can contact Al King at the Concerto Music Agency, 60 W. 41st Avenue in San Mateo. His number is 341-2954 . . . and the number you're looking for could well be a name on Al's current list of talent looking for work. Give him a buzz.

Shamrock Inn Special Refunds

The Shamrock Inn, located at the back exit of the Sahara-Tahoe Hotel parking lot at Southshore, Lake Tahoe, is a great place to stay on your next visit to the lake.

The Inn offers a special refund package in which you furnish your own transportation. Upon arrival, you receive so many refunds and food and beverage certificates that the net cost to you is only $2.95. You can't pass up this chance of a lifetime.

The Shamrock Inn features a recreation room, meeting facilities and a superb sauna bath. And there are pool tables for the youngsters.

50 Miles Fairways

If a golfer were to play every course in the Bahamas and hit every ball directly from tee to green, he would have to walk nearly 50 miles over the lush green fairways. Another ten miles of fairways are currently under construction. If he shot every course in par it would take him 918 strokes.

Housekeeping Cottages At Dutch Harbor

Headed into the farther north reaches of California on your vacation? Then try Dutch Harbor (formerly Lakeshore Motel) at 910 Main Street in Lakeport (the phone number for reservations is 263-4241).

There are assorted new deluxe motel units for your added convenience, as well as housekeeping cottages. This is a tremendous place to stay.

KITTY'S LONGBRANCH Virginia City, Nevada

No, you won't see Matt Dillon or Doc hanging out in this combination bar, hotel, restaurant, but you will feel the same kind of "Gunsmoke" excitement when you lay your eyes on Bobby Taylor Watson, top organ and piano player (and please don't shoot him, pardner). The decor of this unique establishment is 1880's, and co-owners Charles Palmer and Lou Vlasek, have gone to great lengths to make it as authentic as possible. Don "Sheriff" Forbes shares the stage with Boggy by keeping the beat on the drums, and it's two hours of spellbinding action. Don't miss this duo. Playing the organ during intermission breaks is Lou Vlasek's young son, Mike, who is well on his way to a successful show biz career.

NON-SPELUNKERS

America's best-known caves and underground national parks—Carlsbad Caverns, N.M., and Mammoth Cave, Ky. — were both discovered by hunters. The American Automobile Association says the entrance to Carlsbad was found by a cowboy who noticed a cloud of bats rising from the ground near where he was hunting for deer, while Mammouth's discoverer was a Kentuckian on the trial of a wounded bear.

GREAT TEAM — Lois and Don Forbes manage Virginia City's famed Kitty's Longbranch Casino, where the 1800's live again in full splendor. This likeable couple greet a constant flow of visitors to the Nevada club, which enjoys a "gold rush" business seven days a week.

Hoberg's Mountain Retreat Enjoys A Smashing Season

Bristling with fun and excitement! That best describes the 1970 vacation season at Hoberg's Resort, among the pines of scenic Lake County.

This popular mountain spa, spanning out over eighty-five years as a leading Northern California summer resort, still highlights the answers to the perfect vacation.

Golf, swimming, tennis, horses, nightly dancing, two cocktail lounges baseball diamond hiking, fishing, trails, and within minutes of the Hoberg Airport and water sports.

Food and accommodations are really great — attracting thousands each year from all points in California backed by a real, personal interest in completely satisfying whatever the vacationist would expect to find adding up to the perfect vacation.

Spacious banquet rooms, one accommodating 1,000 conventionaires, are available upon request.

Le Trianon Offers Ultimate Vacationland

The beauteous Blue Lakes of Ukiah provide the picturesque setting for Le Trianon Resort, managed by Ray and Pauline Stuller.

Something for everybody is offered at Le Trianon, which is located only three hours by car from the Bay Area. There is swimming in the clear, spring-fed lake, there is fishing for black bass, bluegill and rainbow trout. Rowboats can be rented for trips across the lake, and during hunting season there is plenty of game in the vicinity.

Reservations are requested by the Stullers for the cottages which come in three sizes. However, no prearrangements are necessary for camping or trailer facilities.

Kitt's Kottages Is Well Known Vacation Retreat

Headed for South Lake Tahoe for your vacation trip? Then be certain to spend some of your time at Kitt's Kottages, a well known vacation retreat operated and owned by Emil and Vikie Mayer, which have recently installed several new units with kitchenettes and wall-to-wall carpeting. A public beach is only a block away. Kitt's Kottages are located just two blocs off Highway 50 at San Jose Avenue. Go one block to Riverside, then turn right to Merced.

Reader's Digest

"Before long Mardikian's bulky figure and contagious enthusiasm had become a legend among occupation forces. He spent a Christmas, 1946, in Frankfurt, Germany, helping to bake mince pies and baste turkeys. Then one hot summer day troops in the Heartbreak Ridge section of Korea were astonished to see a ruddy-faced heavyweight puffing up trails in frontier posts."

PARADE

"National Brotherhood Week, which begins today, means a lot to George Mardikian, San Francisco restaurateur. America opened her arms to Mardikian, and he never forgot. In 1947, he founded the National Committee to Aid Homeless Armenians. To date 2,000 have found a new home and a new hope in America — as Mardikian did. That is his way of repaying an act of brotherhood that once saved his life."

LIFE

"A believer in food and people, Mardikian was one of the first to realize both would be great factors in any gathering to determine future international security. He declared, 'A good dinner will put any man in a conciliatory frame of mind. A bad one will make him quarrelsome and disputatious.' "

The Saturday Evening POST

". . . Temperament seasoned with eccentricity, a dash of the poet and whimsey to taste . . . by these George Mardikian has pyramided a dishwasher's salary into one of the world's fabulous restaurants."

LOOK

"George Mardikian, one of Americas most renowned chefs, has shown that good citizenship rates high as good food. Recently he completed his second trip to Europe for the Army at his own expense to brighten up GI chow."

THE MECCA FOR ALL THE GOURMETS AND FOOD CONNOISSEURS OF THE WORLD FOR A QUARTER OF A CENTURY

George Mardikian's World-Famous Restaurant

Omar Khayyam's

From the far corners of the earth

OPEN EVERY DAY — SU 1-1010
O'FARRELL at POWELL — SAN FRANCISCO

It is the home of many new American gastronomical delights. Its colorful owner is George M. Mardikian, famous author of "Song of America," published by McGraw Hill Book Company; "I Found the Happy Land," published by Reader's Digest; many philosophical essays in "This Week Magazine" and, of course, not forgetting his famous cook book "Dinner at Omar Khayyam's" now in its 12th edition.

It was George M. Mardikian who added to the American vocabulary such words as Lavash (Armenian bread), Rose Petal Preserves, Shish Kekab, Pilaff, Kouzou Kzarlma Dolma, Paklava, Haigagan Salad, Patlijan and Tchakhokhbelli Chicken and many more.

Many special arlicles have been written in such National and Inlernational magazines as Reader's Digest, Life, Time, Newsweek, Saturday Evening Post, Look, Collier's, This Week, Parade, Women's Home Companion and twice in the Congressional Record.

Known from one end of the world to the other, it was George M. Mardikian who made the great Persian Poet, Philosopher and Astronomer, Omar Khayyam's name synonymous with good food and good living. Many kings, presidents and world's greats such as athletes, writers, diplomats, journalists, stars of the stage, screen, radio and television, have made their habit of dining at Omar Khayyam's.

The location of Omar Khayyam's is exactly one block away from Union Square, on O'Farrell at Powell Streets. It is considered one of the most beautiful dining rooms in San Francisco with Philippine mahogany walls, original paintings by great artists depicting scenes from the Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam. So don't fail to have a dinner there where you will find every imaginable type of food to please your palate, from charcoal broiled juicy steaks to Shish Kebab and Pilaff, roast chickens, ducks, turkey, ham, to the most unusual lamb dishes.

Cocktails and California Wines will add to your Evening's Dining Pleasure.
